PREVIEWING THE 2011 TAR HEELS

◆ Carolina returns 44 lettermen from last season's 2010 team that won eight games, including a 30-27 double overtime victory over Tennessee in the Music City Bowl. The Tar Heels return six starters on both offense and defense, and return their starting place-kicker and punter.

◆ Carolina has advanced to three consecutive bowl games for the first time since going to seven straight from 1992-98.

◆ Carolina must replace four-year starter T.J. Yates (more than 40 school records) at quarterback. Sophomore Bryn Renner, who has just two career pass attempts, enters the fall as the starter, but will face competition from junior Braden Hanson, sophomore A.J. Blue and January enrollee Marquise Williams.

◆ The Tar Heels last all three of their leading rushers from last season (Johnny White, Shaun Draughn and Anthony Elzy), but welcome back 2009 leading rusher Ryan Houston and redshirt freshman Giovani Bernard. Houston redshirted last season, while Bernard expects to see his first collegiate action after tearing his ACL in last fall's training camp.

◆ Houston, a native of Charlatte, N.C., has scored 17 touchdowns in his last 25 games. He is tied far second place amang all returning ACC runners in career tauchdowns with 18.

◆ Carolina's three returning starters on the affensive line – OT James Hurst, OG Jonathan Cooper and C Cam Holland – have cambined for 54 starts. Cooper was an All-ACC selection last year and Hurst was a freshman All-America.

◆ Carolina has intercepted 58 passes over the last three seasons (20 in 2008, 19 in 2009, 19 in 2010). However, the Tar Heels must replace three starters in the secondary in 2011.

Quinton Caples

◆ Cornerback Charles Brown, who has six career interceptions far 191 yards, returns for his seniar season after sitting out the 2010 season.

◆ Linebacker Kevin Reddick is an All-ACC candidate after leading the team in tackles (74) for the second-straight season.

◆ Place-kicker Casey Barth is one of the most consistent kickers in the country. He has made 50 of 62 career field goal attempts and a school-record 71 consecutive extra points. Barth needs just five field goals to surpass his brother Connar's schaal-record tatal of 53.

◆ Wide receiver Dwight Jones had a breakaut seasan a year ago with 62 receptions and 946 receiving yards, which ranked as the fifth-best single-season marks in schaal history. He had 198 yards in a win at Virginia and 233 in a win at Florida State.

OG Jonathan Cooper

Offensive Line

Returnees:
OT Nick Appel, C Russell Badine, OG Travis Bond, OG David Collins, OG Jonathan Cooper, OL Alex Coulthard-#, OT Carl Gaskins, C Cam Holland, OT James Hurst, OG Peytan Jenest-#, OT T.J. Leitheit, OL Jardan Marsh-#, OT Brennan Williams

Losses: OL Greg Elleby, OL Sam Ellis; OT Mike Ingersall, OG Alan Pelc

Overview: North Carolina welcomes back three starters and one part-time starter from last year's offensive line. Returning are OG Jonathan Cooper (22 starts), C Cam Holland (20) and OT James Hurst (12), who have combined for 54 career starts. Travis Bond has four starts and is the most likely candidate to take over at the other guard position.

In Cooper and Hurst, the Tar Heels have two outstanding All-ACC candidates manning the left side of the line. Cooper was a second-team all-conference pick a year ago and Hurst was a first-team freshman All-America by several publications. Those two tied for the highest grade in coach Sam Pittman's pro-style system. Junior Brennan Williams and senior Carl Gaskins will compete for playing time at right tackle as the Tar Heels look to replace two-year starter Mike Ingersall. Freshman T.J. Leitheit and David Collins provide solid depth.

Highly-touted Landon Turner enrolled in January and will begin his career battling for playing time at guard.

Holland is an the Rimington Award watch list this fall, and will be pushed by redshirt freshman Russell Bodine.

WR Dwight Jones

Wide Receiver

Returnees:
WR Jashua Adams, WR Jheranie Boyd, WR Steven Cobb-#, WR Jordan Darty-#, WR Todd Harrelson, WR Erik Highsmith, WR Dwight Janes, WR Mark McNeill-#, WR Sean Tapley, WR Reggie Wilkins

Losses: None

Newcomers: WR T.J. Tharpe

Overview: Senior Dwight Jones headlines an experience graup af receivers that suffered na personnel lasses in the offseason. Janes emerged as an impact player last year when he hauled in 62 receptians far 946 yards and faur touchdowns. He had faur 100-yard receiving games, induding a 198-yard performance at Virginia and a 233-yard outburst in the win at Florida State.

Junior Erik Highsmith had a steady saphamare season with 25 receptians far 348 yards and three touchdowns. He had a 39-yard touchdawn receptian in the bawl game vs. Tennessee. Speedy wideout Jheranie Boyd praved to be a valuable weapan bath as a deep threat and an accasional runner. Both players will be expected ta increase their production in 2011.

Sophomare Joshua Adams started the final faur games of the seasan and was starting ta blossam as a wide receiver. Hawever, he was diagnased in January with an auto-immune disarder that affects his kidneys and did nat participate this spring.

The Tar Heels redshirted twa wide receivers last year – Sean Tapley and Reggie Wilkins – who could have an impact in 2011. Bath have drawn praise from the coaching staff and alsa could be used as kick returners.

TE Christian Wilson

Tight Ends & H-Backs

Returnees:
TE Eric Albright-#, TE Sean Fitzpatrick, TE Nelson Hurst, HB Christian Wilsan

Losses: TE Zack Pianalta, HB/TE Ryan Taylar, TE Ed Barham

Newcomers: Eric Ebron, Jack Tabb

Overview: North Carolina was hit hard by graduation lasses at tight end, lasing its tap three players, including four-year lettermen Zack Pianalta, Ryan Taylar and Ed Barham. Thase three combined for 79 receptions in 2010.

The Tar Heels will laak ta returning lettermen Nelsan Hurst and Christian Wilsan ta step up. Hurst, the alder brather af offensive tackle James Hurst, played sparingly in his first year in the pragram after transferring fram Mississippi State. A strang player who understands the game, Hurst is first on the depth chart.

Wilsan is a three-year lettermen who has 12 career receptions. He played well dawn the stretch last year and will have an appartunity to take a starting spot this fall.

Sean Fitzpatrick entered the program last year and did a terrific jab in the weight raam preparing for the upcaming seasan during his redshirt year. Carolina alsa signed twa tight ends in Eric Ebran and Jack Tabb who will have an appartunity ta campete far playing time this fall.

QB Bryn Renner

Quarterbacks & Running Backs

Returnees:

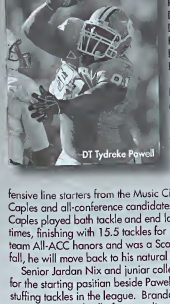
Losses: TB Shaun Draughn, RB Anthany Elzy, TB Jahnny White, QB T.J. Yates

Newcomers: QB Marquise Williams, RB Ramar Morris

Overview: Narth Carolina must replace a faur-year starter at quarterback and three tailbacks who accounted far 96 percent af last year's rushing game. Gane are T.J. Yates, who set mare than 40 schaal records, and the running back tria of Shaun Draughn, Anthany Elzy and Johnny White.

The Tar Heels will laak ta Bryn Renner as the first aptian at quarterback. The lanky saphamare has been in the pragram two full seasans, but has played in just three games and has anly twa pass attempts. He will face competition from junior Braden Hanson, saphomare A.J. Blue and January enrollee Marquise Williams. Blue is an intriguing aptian. Twa years aga, he served as Carolina's "wildcat" quarterback, playing in six games and rushing far 33 yards and completing ane pass far 24 yards. He tare knee ligaments vs. Geargia Southern in the sixth game af the season and redshirted last year.

At tailback, senior Ryan Houston returns after sitting out the 2010 seasan and redshirting. He was finally cleared in the NCAA/UNC investigation just before the sixth game af the year and elected nat ta play and have an entire year of eligibility in 2011. He was UNC's leading rusher in 2009 and has scored 17 tauchdawns in his last 25 games. The Tar Heels also return Hunter Furr, Curtis Byrd and Devon Ramsay as options aut af the backfield.



DT Tydreke Powell

Defensive Linemen

Returnees:
DE Quintan Caples, DE Adam Curry-#, DT Ethan Farmer, DE Tim Jacksan, DE Kareem Martin, DT Jordan Nix, DE Donte Paige-Moss, DE Alec Petracelli-#, DT Tydreke Powell

Losses: DE Linwan Euwell, DT Jared McAdaa

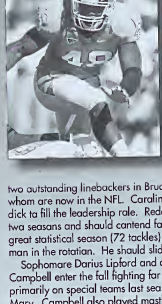
Newcamers: DT Sylvester Williams, DE Tyler Alberts, DL Devante Brawn, DT Shawn Underwood

Overview: Narth returns three defensive line starters from the Music City Bawl, including All-America Quintan Caples and all-conference candidates Tydreke Powell and Dante Paige-Mass. Caples played both tackle and end last year and was nearly unstappable at times, finishing with 15.5 tackles for lasses and 10.0 sacks. He earned first-team All-ACC hanors and was a Scout.cam second-team All-America. This fall, he will move back to his natural positian at end.

Senior Jardan Nix and juniar college enrallee Sylvester Williams will battle for the starting positian beside Pawell, wha is regarded as ane of the top run-stuffing tackles in the league. Brandan Willis, wha began his career at UNC, returns to Chapel Hill after spending a year at UCLA.

Paige-Mass played extremely well in the last few weeks of the season and the coaching staff expects his stellar play to carry aver inta 2011. He finished second on the team with 13.5 tackles for lasses and 7.0 sacks.

As true freshmen last year, Kareem Martin and Tim Jackson were farced inta early actian. That experience should anly help as they compete for playing time this fall.



LB Kevin Reddick

Linebackers

Returnees:
OLB Josh Bridges-#, OLB Zach Brown, OLB Curtis Campbell, OLB P.J. Clyburn, OLB Herman Davidson, OLB Tammy Heffernan-#, MLB Dian Guy, OLB Darius Lipfard, LB Shane Mularkey, OLB Ebele Okakpu, MLB Kevin Reddick

Losses: OLB Bruce Carter, OLB Quan Sturdivant

Newcomers: Fabby Desir, Travis Hughes, Narkeithus Otis, Keean Virgile

Overview: The Tar Heels must replace two autstanding linebackers in Bruce Carter and Quan Sturdivant, both of whom are now in the NFL. Carolina will laak to middle linebacker Kevin Reddick to fill the leadership role. Reddick led the team in tackles each of the last twa seasons and shauld cantend far all-canference hanars. Zach Brawn had great statistical season (72 tackles) in 2010 as a spat starter and the fourth man in the rotatian. He shauld slide inta a starting role an the weak side.

Sophamare Darius Lipford and canverted saphamare safety Curtis Campbell enter the fall fighting far the ather autside positian. Lipford played primarily an special teams last seasan, but did earn a start against William & Mary. Campbell also played mastly an special teams last year.

Travis Hughes headlines a recruiting class that included faur linebackers. Hughes and juniar callege transfer Fabby Desir are expected to campete for playing time immediately.

Defensive Backs

Returnees:
S Tre Bastan, CB Charles Brawn, CB Brendon Felder, CB Timathy Furr-#, S Brian Guptan, CB Jash Hunter, CB Mywan Jackson, CB Pete Mangum, S Matt Merletti, CB Jabari Price, S Gene Rabinsan, S Jonathan Smith,

Losses: CB Kendric Burney, CB LeCount Fantroy, S Da'Norris Searcy, S Deunta Williams

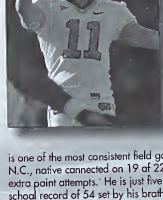
Overview: The Tar Heels must replace three starters in the defensvie backfield fram last year's squad, including farmer all-canference picks Kendric Burney and Deunta Williams and steady performer Da'Norris Searcy. The anly returning starter from last year in Jabari Price, wha started the last faur games as a freshman.

Also returning for his seniar seasan is carnerback Charles Brawn, wha has 22 career starts and six interceptians far 193 return yards. Brawn, Guptan and Smith did nat play last year due to the NCAA/UNC investigatian. Smith, a standaut an special teams during his career, will have an appartunity this fall ta earn a starting spat at safety. He is a tall, physical player with good speed.

Another player pressed inta actian last year as true freshmen is Tre Bastan wha will mave from carner to safety.

Senior Matt Merletti emerged as a leader in the defensive backfield last year, and will certainly see plenty of playing time at either safety or nickel back. Gene Rabinsan, Mywan Jacksan and Jash Hunter all provide salid depth.



PK Casey Barth

Specialists

Returnees:
PK Casey Barth, DS Matt Braswell-#, P C.J. Feagles, DS Mark Hause-#, H Trase Janes-#, PK Thamas Maare-#, DS Parker Thamas-#

Losses: P Grant Schallack

Newcomer: PK Miller Snyder

Overview: The Tar Heels return starting place-kicker Casey Barth and starting punter C.J. Feagles.

Barth, a candidate for the Lou Groza Award as the natian's tap place-kicker, is one of the most consistent field goal kickers in the country. The Wilmington, N.C., native cannected on 19 af 22 attempts last seasan and made all 38 extra point attempts. He is just five made field goals away fram eclipsing the schaal record of 54 set by his brather Cannor from 2004-07. Casey has hit an 105 af 106 extra point tries in his career and halds the school recard far mast consecutive extra points made with his current streak of 71.

Feagles taak aver the punting duties in the third game af the 2010 seasan and steadily pragressed. He had perhaps his best performance af the year in the final game of the seasan against Tennessee with two 50-yard punts, including a long of 51. C.J., the san af longtime NFL punter Jeff Feagles, averaged 37.5 yards per punt a year aga.

Mark Hause returns as the deep snapper an punts, but Carolina must replace Trevar Stuart, wha was the snapper an field goals and extra points. Hause cauld contend for bath pasitians. Trase Jones, wha alsa has experience as a kicker and kick return man, is the halder for the third straight seasan.

Walk-on Thamas Maare, a native af Chapel Hill, may challenge Barth far kickaff duties.

CAROLINA

2011 COACHES & STAFF

A man with a proven record of success and an unyielding commitment to excellence, Butch Davis enters his fifth season as North Carolina's head coach. Davis has turned around the UNC football program with his ability to motivate, teach and recruit at the highest level.

Among his accomplishments in Chapel Hill, Davis has led the Tar Heels to three consecutive bowl games, produced 24 wins over the past three years, and is the first UNC coach to win at least eight games in three straight seasons since 1992-94. The Tar Heels have 28 wins under Davis, which is nine more than they won in the five years (2002-06) prior to his arrival.

Davis may have turned in the best coaching performance of his career in 2010 despite a roster ravaged by NCAA suspensions and injuries, which cost the Tar Heels 221 missed games. The Tar Heels won eight games and capped off the season with a dramatic 30-27 double-overtime victory against Tennessee in the 2010 Music City Bowl. It was Carolina's first bowl win since 2001 and marked the first time since the late 1990s that UNC had appeared in three straight postseason bowl games. Under his leadership, the program also notched its first win in Tallahassee against Florida State, and its first win at Virginia since 1981.

The former head coach at the University of Miami and the NFL's Cleveland Browns, Davis is Carolina's 33rd head coach and the ninth since the ACC was formed in 1953. He was introduced as North Carolina's head coach on Nov. 13, 2006, and he quickly rejuvenated the fan base and brought excitement to every Saturday at Kenan Stadium.

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 14 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

An excellent motivator and technician, Davis recruited or coached a number of players at Miami who were selected in the NFL Draft, including an amazing 28 first-round picks in six seasons. Since his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis has produced three first-round draft picks in defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer, wide receiver Hakeem Nicks and defensive end Robert Quinn.

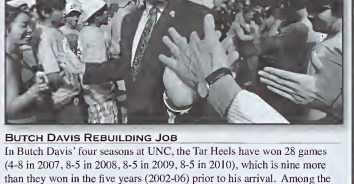
Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics. His teams have been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in nine of his 10 seasons as a head coach, including six at Miami and three at UNC.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis served as an analyst on the NFL Network for two seasons. There he was able to watch and study the latest college football offensive and defensive schemes. Yearning to return to the college coaching ranks, Davis surveyed the college football landscape, and when the Carolina job came open, he was immediately interested.

Carolina fans have certainly responded to his style of football. UNC attracted a school-record crowd of 29,500 to the 2010 Blue-White Spring Game, which was broadcast nationally on ESPN. Carolina has sold out nearly every home game since his arrival in 2007, increased average attendance by more than 15 percent and has sold more than 35,000 season tickets per season, including a school-record 36,250 in 2008.

Davis and the administration also have worked to improve the Kenan Stadium facilities, beginning with an addition to the Kenan Football Center in 2009. This fall, Carolina will open the Loudermilk Center For Excellence, a five-story privately-financed structure built in Kenan Stadium's east end zone, which will house the John W. Pope Academic Support Center for student-athletes, the Carolina Leadership Academy, Olympic sports' strength and conditioning center, visiting locker room, club seats and individual suites. The center is named in honor of Charlie Loudermilk, a former football lettermen and long-time benefactor to the University.

The first phase of the Kenan Stadium master plan was completed in time for the 2009 football season. A fifth floor was added to the Kenan Football Center, which contains additional space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four gameday gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. Fourth floor renovations included additional office space for football support staff. The first floor players' locker room was also completely renovated.



Butch Davis

Butch Davis Rebuilding Job

In Butch Davis' four seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels have won 28 games (4-8 in 2007, 8-5 in 2008, 8-5 in 2009, 8-5 in 2010), which is nine more than they won in the five years (2002-06) prior to his arrival. Among the evidence that Davis has turned the program around:

- Carolina averaged a school-record 58,250 fans in 2010
- Season ticket sales have increased since 2007
- Win over Virginia Tech on ESPN Thursday night broadcast in Blacksburg in 2009.
- UNC's first win over Florida State in Tallahassee in 2010.
- Facility improvements at Kenan Stadium with the addition of the Loudermilk Student-Athlete Center for Excellence and the renovations to the Kenan Football Center.
- 19 NFL Draft selections in four years, including a school-record nine players picked in 2011.
- Carolina's first home Thursday Night ESPN football game in 2009.
- Carolina's 2010 Spring Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN and drew a school-record 29,500 spectators.
- Carolina has produced three first-round NFL Draft picks (Kentwan Balmer by the San Francisco 49ers in 2008, Hakeem Nicks by the New York Giants in 2009 and Robert Quinn by the St. Louis Rams in 2011) under Davis.
- Carolina has advanced to three consecutive bowl games for the first time since going to seven straight from 1992-98.
- Four of Davis' five UNC recruiting classes have been ranked in the Top 25 by a majority of recruiting analysts.

At Carolina

The 2010 season began with consecutive 6-point losses to nationally-ranked LSU and Georgia Tech, but Davis and the Tar Heels rebounded to win eight of the next 11, including big victories over Florida State, Clemson, East Carolina and Tennessee in the Music City Bowl. Of North Carolina's five losses last season, three were by a combined total of just 16 points.

Davis' third Carolina team in 2009 used a dynamic defense and an opportunistic offense to go 8-5 overall, 4-4 in the ACC and advance to a second consecutive Meinecke Bowl in Charlotte. The Tar Heels' defense led the ACC and ranked sixth in the country in yards allowed. Carolina hosted its first-ever ESPN Thursday night game vs. Florida State and a week later knocked off No. 14 Virginia Tech in Blacksburg on Thursday night. Carolina also scored impressive wins over East Carolina, Connecticut, Duke,

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 14 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. As a head coach, Davis has recruited or coached an amazing 30 first-round NFL Draft picks.

Miami and Boston College to post a second straight winning season. Of the Tar Heels' five losses, three were by a combined total of just six points. Carolina placed nine players on the All-ACC teams, including four first-team selections, which was the most since 1997.

Carolina began to show evidence of improvement under Davis when it posted the nation's sixth-best turnaround from 2007 (4-8) to 2008 (8-5). The Tar Heels won games over bowl teams Rutgers, Miami, Connecticut, Notre Dame, Boston College and Georgia Tech and were in the hunt for the 2008 ACC championship until the final week of the season. The Tar Heels earned an invitation to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in Charlotte, its first postseason game since 2004, and sold more than 22,000 tickets (10,000 more than its allotment) in just one week of sales. An estimated 40,000 Carolina fans were in attendance.

Davis' first season in Chapel Hill was highlighted by an impressive 33-27 win over Miami, in which he earned his first ACC victory against his former school. Carolina was competitive in nearly every game, with six losses decided by a combined total of just 24 points. Statistically, Carolina finished 35th in the country in total defense, improving nearly 60 positions from the previous year.

Pipeline To The Pros

Several individuals have benefitted from Davis' return to the college game. Carolina has produced 19 NFL draft picks since he came to Chapel Hill in 2007, including three first round selections.

In the 2011 NFL Draft, Carolina led the nation with a school-record nine players selected - DE Robert Quinn, LB Bruce Carter, DT Marvin Austin, WR Greg Little, S Da'Norris Searcy, TB Johnny White, QB T.J. Yates, LB Quan Sturdivant and TE Ryan Taylor.

Carolina once again led all ACC schools with players picked in the 2009 NFL Draft, including Nicks, second-round pick Richard Quinn, third-rounder Brandon Tate and fifth-round picks Garrett Reynolds and Brooks Foster.

Several other players have signed as free agents, including Tampa Bay Buccaneers starting kicker Connor Barth.

At Miami

Davis earned his first college head coaching job with Miami, where he served six seasons (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances. He took over a Miami program faced with NCAA sanctions that restricted the number of scholarships in his first three seasons. However, his Hurricane teams finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including No. 2 in the nation in 2000, when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Davis helped the Canes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the '95 season. The team would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis' arrival.

Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. The following season he led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl.

Davis' 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis.

In his final year at Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. That team was second in the nation in scoring, fifth in total offense, fifth in scoring defense and eighth in pass defense.

NFL Experience

Davis left Coral Gables following the 2000 season to join the Cleveland Browns. In his first season in Cleveland in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (four interception returns, one fumble return, one safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less. Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988.

Cleveland was Davis' second stint in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-94 and was defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994. The Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls in 1992 and 1993 and played in one other NFC championship game. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL programs in the 1990s. He was the defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular-season games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994 and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied its bid for a three-peat. Davis's defense was No. 1 in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He coached three Pro Bowl starters – end Charles Haley, tackle Leon Lett and safety Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

College Assistant Coach

Davis was defensive line coach at Miami from 1984-88 under head coach Jimmy Johnson, whom he also coached under for five years in Dallas and five years at Oklahoma State. The Hurricanes went 52-9 in those five years and won the national championship after beating Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 12-0 record in 1987. He coached 15 linemen who went on to play in the NFL, including All-Americas Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown. Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988 and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Johnson's Oklahoma State teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for coach Frank Broyles, but his career was cut short due to a knee injury. He earned a bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974. His coaching career began as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville High School in Arkansas. He had stints in Oklahoma at Pawhuska High School (1974-75) and Sand Springs High School (1976-77) as an assistant coach and at Tulsa Rogers High School (1978) in his first head coaching assignment before joining Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State.

Personal

Paul Hilton (Butch) Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Okla. Davis and his wife, Tammy, have a teenage son, Drew.

The Davis family is heavily involved in the Chapel Hill and surrounding communities. Since moving to Chapel Hill in 2006, Davis his family have pledged their time and financial support to many organizations. They include, but are not limited to: Night of Champions, Flashes of Hope, Lineberger Cancer Center, UNC Children's Hospital, SECU Family House, Athletes in Action, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Habitat for Humanity, Carolina Kids, Multiple Sclerosis, Crosby Scholars and Informed Families.

Ken Browning
Running Backs Coach
18th Season at UNC

The longest tenured assistant coach in North Carolina history, Ken Browning enters his 18th season with the Tar Heels and fifth as the running backs coach. Browning has coached on the offensive and defensive side of the ball at UNC, including three seasons as tight ends coach (2001-04) and 11 years as defensive tackles coach (1994-2000, 2005-06). Butch Davis is the fourth head coach Browning has worked under at North Carolina. Browning also oversees Carolina's camps and clinics.

In 2011, Browning received the Outstanding Contribution to Amateur Football Award by the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame. He was also named to Rivals.com's all-star ACC coaching staff.

A different running back has led the team in rushing in each of the last three seasons under Browning's tutelage, a testament to his ability to adapt to changes in personnel. Shaun Draughn led the team in rushing in 2008, Ryan Houston in 2009 and Johnny White in 2010. Of that threesome, only Houston returns in 2011. Draughn, who started and rushed for 160 yards in the Music City Bowl vs. Tennessee, and White, who was the team's leading rusher last year with 720, were both seniors in 2010. White, who was on pace for a 1,000-yard season until he fratured his clavicle at FSU, was drafted in the fifth round by the Buffalo Bills in the 2011 NFL Draft. Houston elected to redshirt last season and is the Tar Heels' only proven runner. He will face competition from redshirt freshman Giovani Bernard, junior Hunter Furr and January enrollee Travis Riley.

In 18 seasons in Chapel Hill, Browning has developed a number of outstanding players, including first-round NFL draft picks Vonnie Holliday (DT), Marcus Jones (DT/DE) and Ryan Sims (DT) and second-round picks Rick Terry (DT) and Russell Davis (DT). He also recruited and coached 2008 first-round NFL draft pick Kentwan Balmer. Sports Illustrated selected North Carolina's defensive tackles, which Browning coached, in its positional "Dream Team" in its 1998 preseason college football issue. In 2002, Sims, who played under Browning for three years, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round.

Browning is in his second stint coaching on the offensive side of the ball at UNC. He coached Carolina's tight ends for four seasons (2001-04) under then-head coach John Bunting, where he developed several standout players.

With Browning on the defensive side of the ball, the Tar Heels led the ACC in total defense from 1995-97 and finished No. 2 in the nation in yards allowed in 1996 and 1997. The Tar Heels were third in the country against the run in 1996 allowing 73.9 yards per game. In 1997, Carolina was fourth in the nation stopping the run as opponents averaged 77.9 yards per contest. UNC held opponents to less than 50 yards rushing in six games and less than 100 yards in nine of 12 games.

Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000, Browning directed a UNC squad that set a school record with an ACC-best 53 sacks. Carolina finished 19th in the nation against the run, allowing just 103.5 yards per game, and was second in the league and 30th in the nation in total defense.

One of the state's most decorated high school coaches, Browning joined the Tar Heel staff in 1994 and has coached in some of the most memorable Carolina football games. He has been a part of 10 bowl games and was on the staff in 1996-97 when UNC had a combined record of 21-3 and finished ranked in the top 10 both seasons.

Browning was the head coach and athletic director at Northern Durham High School for 18 years. He posted a 178-35 record and won the 1993 4-A state title and Shrine Bowl. Over his last three years, Northern built a 43-2 record and he was named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 1992 and 1993. He became only the third coach to win both the state title and Shrine Bowl in the same year.

Troy Douglas Defensive Backs Coach Third Season at UNC

Troy Douglas is in his third season as Carolina's defensive backs coach. He is in his 24th season as a college coach, and has spent 22 seasons working in the defensive secondary. Douglas tutors the Tar Heel defensive backs along with defensive coordinator Everett Withers, his former college teammate at Appalachian State.

Under Douglas' direction, Carolina's defensive backs have quickly developed into one of the top units in the ACC. Despite being hit hard last year by suspension and injuries, Carolina was among the national leaders in interceptions with 19 for the second straight season. Safety Da'Norris Searcy led the team with four picks and was a fourth-round selection in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

This fall, the Tar Heels must replace all four starters, including Searcy and all-conference performers CB Kendric Burney and S Deunta Williams. Carolina returns cornerback Charles Brown and safeties Jonathan Smith and Brian Gupton after all three sat out the 2010 season. Brown has the most experience with 22 career starts and six interceptions.

Douglas came to Chapel Hill after serving three years as the defensive backs coach at South Florida. During his tenure in Tampa, USF earned three bowl bids and won 26 games.

At USF, Douglas played a major role in developing one of the nation's top defenses. In 2008, the Bulls finished 10th in the country in overall defense and in 2007, USF led the country in turnovers, interceptions and fumble recoveries. His secondary produced 17 of the 23 interceptions, including three by first team All-America Mike Jenkins, four by third team All-Big East safety Nate Allen and six by second team All-Big East corner Trae Williams. Jenkins was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft and Williams was picked in the fifth round by Jacksonville. Two more of Douglas' pupils were picked in the 2010 NFL Draft, including second-round pick Nate Allen and third-round selection Jerome Murphy.

Douglas also has coached at Indiana (2004-05), South Carolina State (2003), Michigan State (2001-2002), SMU (1997-2000), UTEP (1995-1996), East Tennessee State (1992-1994) and West Chester (1989-1991).

At Indiana, he coached cornerback Tracy Porter who became a second-round pick of the New Orleans Saints in 2008. Porter picked off a pass and returned it for a touchdown in the Super Bowl win over Indianapolis.

During his two years as the secondary coach at Michigan Sate, the Spartans still ranked 14th in the nation in pass defense despite losing four cornerbacks through the 2001 season.

In his one year at South Carolina State, Douglas was instrumental in building a defense that led I-AA in pass efficiency defense.

At SMU, Douglas coached running backs for one season (1997) before moving to the defensive side of the ball. In 1998, SMU was ranked 14th nationally in defense.

In his two seasons at UTEP, Douglas coached the secondary in 1995 and running backs in 1996, after three seasons as the secondary coach at East Tennessee State. At ETSU, the Buccaneers ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency defense, and one of Douglas' players – Donnie Abraham – went on to a very successful career with the New York Jets that included a Pro Bowl appearance.

Douglas began a full-time coaching career as the defensive backs coach at West Chester (Pa.) in 1989, where he coached Lee Woodall, a Pro Bowl player in 1995 and 1997 as a 49er.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Douglas was a four-year starter at wide receiver for Appalachian State from 1983-86. He led the team in receiving as a junior and senior. When he graduated, he ranked third all-time at ASU with 90 career receptions for 1,401 yards.

He earned a bachelor's degree in communications arts (1988) and was a graduate assistant at his alma mater before his first full-time position at West Chester.

Douglas and his wife, Rebecca, have two children – Tanner and Taryn.

Art Kaufman
Linebackers Coach
Third Season at UNC

A 27-year coaching veteran, Art Kaufman is in his third season as Carolina's linebackers coach. He came to UNC after one season at Southern Miss, where he coached the defensive line and was the special teams coordinator.

Under his guidance, Carolina has developed several outstanding linebackers, including 2011 NFL Draft picks Bruce Carter (second round, Dallas) and Quan Sturdivant (sixth round, Arizona), and current standouts Kevin Reddick and Zach Brown.

Despite injuries to Sturdivant and Carter in 2010, the Tar Heels still finished fourth in the ACC and 30th in the country in total defense. Reddick and Brown were the team's top tacklers.

Carolina's linebackers helped lead a defense that finished first in the ACC and sixth in the nation in total defense in 2009. The Tar Heels were 10th in the nation against the run and finished 13th in scoring defense. Carolina was the only defense in the country to finish among the top 15 in total yards allowed, scoring, rushing, passing, pass efficiency, third down percentage and tackles for losses. Sturdivant earned All-ACC honors and Carter was a second-team pick.

Kaufman, who has coached in 11 bowl games, helped lead Southern Miss to a victory over Troy in the New Orleans Bowl in 2008. A former defensive coordinator at Mississippi, Kaufman also has coached at Middle Tennessee State, East Carolina, Arkansas Tech and Louisiana Tech.

Kaufman spent three seasons at Middle Tennessee as the Blue Raiders linebackers coach and two seasons as defensive line coach at East Carolina. Prior to joining the staff at ECU, Kaufman spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas Tech.

A 1980 graduate of the University of Arkansas at Monticello, Kaufman had two stints at Mississippi, coaching in Oxford for a total of 10 years. He spent six years as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Kaufman was a two-time All-America linebacker during his playing days at Arkansas-Monticello and followed his four-year career with the Boll Weevils by taking a graduate assistant position at Delta State University.

He earned his first full-time coaching job in 1983 when he became the outside linebackers coach at Northwestern State University (La.). In 1987, he was named defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northwestern State.

He left there the following year for Ole Miss to coach the Rebels' outside linebackers and defensive ends. While at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped guide the Rebels to back-to-back bowl appearances (1989 Liberty Bowl and 1991 Gator Bowl) for the first time since the 1970s.

Four years later, Kaufman was named the defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Louisiana Tech University, where he remained until returning to Ole Miss in 1995. In 1992, his defensive unit ranked in the top five nationally.

He again served as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for the next six years. During his second stint at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped the Rebels to four straight bowl berths (1997-2000), and his 1999 defense ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense.

A native of Dermott, Ark., Kaufman has three daughters: Tara, Taylor and Madison.

Allen Mogridge
Tight Ends Coach
Third Season at UNC

A former four-year letterwinner at North Carolina, Allen Mogridge returned to his alma mater in 2009 as the Tar Heels' tight ends coach after working seven seasons at the University at Buffalo.

Under Mogridge's tutelage, tight ends Zack Pianalto and Ryan Taylor developed into two of the Tar Heels' top offensive weapons. An honorable-mention All-ACC pick in 2009, Pianalto established the UNC single-season mark for catches by a tight end with 33 despite missing five games in 2010, only to see Taylor surpass that total with 36 by year's end. Pianalto set the career mark for catches by a UNC tight end with 94 before suffering a season-ending injury at Virginia.

No team in the ACC had as many receptions by a tight end (85) as the Tar Heels in 2010 - Taylor (36), Pianalto (30), Ed Barham (13), Christian Wilson (5) and Nelson Hurst (1). Taylor was selected in the seventh round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

Before returning to Chapel Hill, Mogridge coached the offensive line for two seasons with the Bulls and was the team's running backs coach for three seasons. He also served as recruiting coordinator for head coach Turner Gill. In 2008, Buffalo won the MAC championship with a victory over heavily-favored Ball State and earned the school's second-ever bowl berth.

In his first season as Buffalo's offensive line coach in 2007, Mogridge mentored the Bulls' first ever All-MAC offensive linemen in center Jamey Richard and guard Jeff Niedermier. His offensive line paved the way for an offense that scored a school Division I-A-record 291 points, produced the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the Division I-A era (James Starks) and protected a quarterback that completed a school-record 258 passes (Drew Willy). Richard was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

In 2006, he coached freshman running back James Starks to a second-team All-MAC selection - the first time a UB freshman earned all-league honors.

Mogridge had an excellent career at North Carolina where he lettered from 1996-99. He played four different positions – tight end, fullback, offensive tackle and defensive end – during his career and earned the Kenan Award for Leadership in his senior season. He went to four bowl games as a Tar Heel, including the 1996 and 1997 Gator Bowls. Carolina was a combined 21-3 over those two seasons and finished No. 4 in the final USA Today coaches poll in 1997.

Mogridge spent one year as a strength and conditioning coach at UNC while pursuing his masters degree. He spent the summer of 2000 in the Carolina Panthers training camp before playing for one year in the Arena Football League with the Carolina Cobras.

In his first stint at Buffalo he assisted all facets of the defense - helping the Bulls jump from near the bottom of total defense in the nation to 45th in 2001 - while focusing on the Bulls' defensive linemen.

He rejoined the Buffalo coaching staff in February of 2004 after one season at Western Carolina as the defensive ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

The Sevierville, Tenn., native married the former Jennifer Carpenter (UNC '97), and the couple has two daughters, Livi and Izzy.

Tom Myslinski enters his first season as North Carolina's head strength and conditioning coach for football. Myslinski (mish-LEN-ski) comes to Chapel Hill after a year at the University of Memphis and five years with the Cleveland Browns.

A native of Rome, N.Y., Myslinski earned all-conference honors at Tennessee, played nine seasons in the NFL and has worked as a strength and conditioning coach at Memphis, Pittsburgh, Robert Morris and professionally with the Cleveland Browns.

Most recently, Myslinski spent one season at Memphis where he was responsible for planning and designing the interior of the new $3 million, 13,000 square foot weight room. He was instrumental in maintaining a 92 percent start rate throughout the season.

Myslinski served five seasons with the Browns, the last three as the head strength and conditioning coach. He was the club's assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004, when Davis was the team's head coach. Myslinski also worked for the Browns on a part-time basis in 2003.

An offensive lineman at Tennessee, Myslinski earned eight varsity letters in Knoxville in football and track and field. He was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference and honorable-mention All-America selection in 1991. He started at guard for two consecutive SEC championship teams (1989, 1990). He was also a member of the Volunteers' 1991 NCAA Champion track and field team. Myslinski earned a bachelor of science degree in kinesiology in 1992 and was a two-time Academic All-SEC member. He later earned his master's degree from Pittsburgh in exercise physiology.

Myslinski had a nine-year NFL playing career, which started as a fourth-round draft choice of Dallas in 1992. He played in 60 games with 25 starts during that time, including stints with Chicago (1993-94), Jacksonville (1995), Pittsburgh (1996-97, 2000), Indianapolis (1998) and Dallas (1999).

While playing in the NFL, Myslinski severed as a volunteer assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1998-2001, where he worked primarily with offensive and defensive linemen. Prior to his stint at Pittsburgh, Myslinski spent 1996 as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach at the University of North Florida, where he managed all aspects of physical and mental development with the school's student-athletes. He also has served as a martial arts consultant to numerous collegiate athletic programs. In addition, he held the head strength and conditioning position for two seasons (2005-06) at Robert Morris University.

Myslinski developed and patented the "Tunch Punch Ladder" hand agility pad and has trained extensively under offensive line guru, Tunch Ilkin, who is the developer of the Tunch Punch system, which is used extensively by offensive line coaches throughout the NFL. He has published peer-reviewed research in the Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research on the development of strength and power using heavy chains and bands in addition to weights.

Myslinski is registered and certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and serves on the organization's Coaching Performance Committee and Human Performance Center Committee. In 2011, he was also asked to serve on an NSCA task force to prevent improper or questionable strength training and conditioning practices.

Sam Pittman
Associate Head Coach
Offensive Line Coach
Fifth Season at UNC

One of Butch Davis' first hires in Chapel Hill, Sam Pittman enters his fifth season as North Carolina's offensive line coach and first as the associate head coach.

North Carolina has shown steady progress along the offensive line under Pittman and is poised to have its best group in many years in 2011 with significant experience at all five positions. Junior guard Jonathan Cooper, a second-team All-ACC selection last year, and tackle James Hurst, a first-team freshman All-America by several publications, headline a group that has combined for 61 starts. Cooper (22 starts) and Hurst (12) had the best grades of any Tar Heel linemen last season and give the Tar Heels a formidable presence on the left side. A year ago, Carolina was on its way to blocking for a 1,000-yard rusher until tailback Johnny White suffered a season-ending collarbone injury.

Also returning in 2011 are Rimington Award nominee Cam Holland (20 career starts) at center and Travis Bond (5 starts). Bond is slated to take over the vacancy at right guard, while Brennan Williams (1 start) and Carl Gaskins (1 start) will battle for the right tackle position.

Named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by ESPN.com, Pittman has signed the nation's No. 2 rated tackle in each of the last two years - Hurst in 2010 and Kiaro Holt in 2011. He also was instrumental in signing several players in the Tar Heels' recruiting class in 2011, which was ranked as high as 15th nationally.

In 2008, Pittman helped develop offensive tackle Garrett Reynolds into a second-team all-conference selection. Reynolds consistently graded out as the team's top performer over his last two seasons, was named to the 2008 Lombardi Award watch list and was taken in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Reynolds was a key component in a line that helped Carolina produce its best running attack in four years, averaging 122.6 yards and rushing for 18 touchdowns.

Pittman came to Carolina after serving four seasons as Northern Illinois' offensive line coach (2003-06) and three years as its assistant head coach (2004-06). In 2006, the Huskies' offensive line paved the way for the nation's leading rusher, Garrett Wolfe, to run for more than 1,900 yards.

In four years at NIU, Pittman produced nine All-Mid-American Conference linemen, including seven first-team selections. NIU had a tailback top the 1,500-yard rushing mark all four years.

Pittman began his second term at Northern Illinois in 2003. That year, NIU finished 10-2 and beat Maryland and Iowa State and knocked off Alabama, 19-16, in Tuscaloosa. Pittman's line blocked for Michael Turner who finished second in the nation in rushing.

Pittman first coached at Northern Illinois from 1994-95 and produced a trio of All-Big West Conference talent, including All-America center Chris O'Neal. Pittman was the offensive line coach at Oklahoma from 1996-98 where he coached first-round draft pick Stockar McDougle. Pittman has also worked with the offensive lines at Cincinnati (1996), Western Michigan (1999), Missouri (2000) and Kansas (2001).

Before NIU, Pittman produced an 11-9-1 record as head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 1992-93. His 1993 team earned the school's first bowl bid in 23 years at the Valley of the Sun Bowl in Phoenix.

Pittman began his career as a student coach at Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1984 and 1985. He moved to Beggs (Okla.) High School as an assistant in 1986, Princeton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1987-88 and Trenton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1989-90.

At PSU, Pittman won four football letters, finished with 35 straight starts, and played in two postseason games at defensive end (1980-83). As a senior, he won first-team NAIA All-America, first-team All-Central States Intercollegiate Conference, team captain and co-MVP honors. In 1982, Pittman made first-team All-CSIC and team defensive MVP. In 1998, he was inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2004, he was voted to the school's All-Century squad.

Pittman received a bachelor's degree in education from PSU in 1986. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad of Pittsburg, Kan.

Joe Robinson enters his first season as North Carolina's defensive line coach. Robinson joins the Tar Heels after serving the previous three seasons as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at LSU.

Robinson previously worked with UNC defensive coordinator Everett Withers at Southern Mississippi in the early 1990s. Robinson is Carolina's fourth defensive line coach since the start of the 2010 season.

Carolina returns its entire starting defensive line from a year ago, including All-America candidate Quinton Coples and standouts Tydreke Powell and Donte Paige-Moss.

Robinson has coached a variety of positions during his coaching career, including defensive line, special teams, linebackers and running backs. He also has experience as a recruiting coordinator at Southern Miss and Louisiana Tech. He began his college coaching career at Louisiana Tech where he served as a defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 1990-91. Robinson then coached seven seasons at Southern Miss where he tutored the defensive line (1992-93), linebackers (1994-95) and special teams (1996-98).

Most recently, he was responsible for LSU's outstanding special teams units and was a defensive line assistant for the Tigers. Last year, LSU ranked among the top 20 in the country in total defense (12th), sacks (17th), net punting (13th), punt returns (4th) and kickoff returns (8th). He coached LSU All-America Patrick Peterson who finished fourth in the nation in punt returns and ninth in kickoff returns. Peterson is expected to be among the top five picks in April's NFL Draft.

In 2009, LSU's special teams combined to rank No. 1 overall in the SEC as the Tigers led the league in both kickoff coverage (44.5 net average) and punt returns (18.9). LSU was the only team in the league to rank among the top three in the conference in four special teams categories. The Tigers also ranked 26th in the nation in total defense that season. Kick returner Trinton Holliday led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation in punt returns and was selected in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

Robinson coached defensive ends and special teams for four seasons at Arizona from 2004-07. He coached a number of outstanding special teams performers with the Wildcats, including NFL draft picks Antoine Cason, (1st round by San Diego), Nick Folk (6th round by Dallas) and Syndric Steptoe (7th round by Cleveland). At Arizona, Robinson coached on the same staff as current UNC wide receivers coach Charlie Williams.

A 1985 graduate of LSU, Robinson's first coaching job came as an assistant at Catholic High School of Pointe Coupee in 1986. He was promoted to head coach in 1987. Robinson spent the 1988 season as the defensive coordinator at Bastrop High School before spending the next three years at Louisiana Tech.

Robinson also coached at Houston (2002) and Central Florida (2003). He has coached in seven bowl games, including three straight at LSU.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Robinson earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in 1985 followed by a master's degree from Southern Mississippi in 1994. Robinson and his wife Abby have three daughters - Alexandra, Madeline and Valerie.

John Shoop
Offensive Coordinator & Quarterbacks Coach
Fifth Season at UNC

John Shoop enters his fifth season as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Shoop is in his 21st season as a coach, and has served as a coordinator on both the professional and college level.

Carolina players have flourished in Shoop's pro-style offense, which has proven beneficial to athletes moving on to the next level. Quarterback T.J. Yates, an unknown commodity prior to the start of the 2007 season, established more than 40 school records in his four-year career with Shoop, and was picked in the fifth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans. Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks posted a 1,000-yard receiving season and was a first-round pick by the New York Giants in 2009.

Last season, tailback Johnny White blossomed into one of the ACC's top tailbacks before an injury cut short his season. Despite the injury, pro scouts liked what they saw and he was picked in the fifth round by the Buffalo Bills. Tight ends Ryan Taylor, a seventh round pick by Green Bay, and Zack Pianalto set single-season and career marks, respectively, for receptions in 2010. And finally, wide receiver Dwight Jones had a team-high 62 receptions, the fifth-highest single-season total in UNC history. Regardless of position, Shoop has always found ways to get the ball to the team's top playmakers.

A member of the original staff Butch Davis put together in 2007, Shoop came to Chapel Hill after serving two seasons with the Oakland Raiders. He was Oakland's quarterbacks coach in 2005, the tight ends coach in 2006 and was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games of the 2006 season.

Shoop spent the 2004 season as quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. He worked five seasons (1999-2003) for the Chicago Bears under head coach Dick Jauron, including three as the offensive coordinator (2001-03). Shoop was promoted to Chicago's offensive coordinator position after spending the 1999-2000 seasons as the Bears' quarterbacks coach. At the time, he was one of the youngest coordinators in NFL history.

In his first season as the coordinator in Chicago, Shoop revitalized the Chicago offense and helped lead the Bears to the NFC Central Division title with a 13-3 record. That season, tailback Anthony Thomas earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after setting a Bears' rookie rushing record with 1,183 yards, and quarterback Jim Miller had his most productive season as a pro.

Under Shoop's direction in 2002, the Bears offense produced Pro Bowl wide receiver Marty Booker, who became the first Chicago receiver to earn all-star game honors since 1971.

Prior to joining the Bears, Shoop spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he began his NFL coaching career at the age of 25. Shoop was an offensive quality control assistant for the Panthers in 1995-96 where he was a member of a staff that led the team to the NFC Championship Game in 1996. He was then promoted to quarterbacks coach, serving in that capacity for Carolina from 1997-98.

Shoop began his coaching career as a volunteer quarterbacks coach at Dartmouth in 1991, then served as a graduate assistant at Vanderbilt from 1992-94, where he also earned a master's degree in education.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., Shoop graduated from the University of the South in 1991, where he played quarterback for four seasons.

Shoop and his wife, the Rev. Dr. Marcia Mount Shoop, have a son, Sidney, a daughter, Mary Elizabeth and a godson, Chris Dixon. Shoop's brother, Bob, is the defensive coordinator at Vanderbilt.

Charlie Williams, who has been with Butch Davis at North Carolina since 2007, enters his fifth season as North Carolina's wide receivers coach. This is his second stint as an assistant with Davis and his 26th season overall.

Williams has developed several outstanding players in his career, including some of the most prolific wide receivers in UNC history. Most recently, Dwight Jones emerged as the top receiving threat with 62 catches and 946 yards in 2010, which ranks fifth all-time at UNC. The year prior, Greg Little hauled in 62 catches for 724 yards and five touchdowns, and Erik Highsmith was named to the Sporting News All-ACC Freshman team after 37 catches for 425 yards and two touchdowns.

Williams also was responsible for the development of 2008 first-team All-ACC wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, who finished his three-year Carolina career with 14 school records. Nicks set school records for career and single-season receiving yardage and, after a remarkable 217-yard performance in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, declared for the NFL Draft where he was selected in the first round (29th overall) by the New York Giants.

All three of Carolina's starting wide receivers in 2008 were selected in the NFL Draft, including Nicks, Brandon Tate and Brooks Foster.

Williams, who coached wide receivers with head coach Davis at the University of Miami, came to Carolina after serving as the University of Arizona's wide receivers coach from 2004-06.

A 26-year coaching veteran, Williams spent six seasons as receivers coach with Tony Dungy and the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2001, tutoring standout performers such as Keyshawn Johnson, Reidel Anthony and Jacquez Green. Johnson was chosen to play in three Pro Bowls while Williams was his position coach. The 2000 and 2001 Tampa Bay offenses set several franchise offensive records, and the team advanced to the playoffs four times during his tenure.

Prior to his NFL stint, Williams was wide receivers coach for three seasons at Miami, two under Dennis Erickson and one under Davis.

At Arizona, Williams developed Syndric Steptoe into a big-play threat. Steptoe was the Wildcats' leading receiver in 2006 with 55 receptions for 568 yards. Mike Thomas, Arizona's second-leading receiver in 2006 with 50 catches, set the freshman school record with 52 receptions in 2005.

Williams also coached one season for Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 2003, where he helped develop Troy Williamson into a 2005 first-round NFL draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

In 1993 and 1994, Williams coached Chris T. Jones, who led the Hurricanes in receiving both years and had a total of 90 catches for 1,462 yards. The 1993 Hurricanes (9-3) played Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl and Jones led Miami with six catches for 98 yards.

Williams was part of the 1994 Miami staff that led the Canes to a 10-2 finish and played Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Williams began his coaching career at Long Beach City College in 1984. He worked two years at New Mexico State (1986-87), four seasons at TCU (1988-91) and one year at Minnesota (1992) before joining the Miami program.

Williams played two years as a defensive back at Colorado State (1978-79). He and his wife Lisa, have two daughters, Sydney and Jada, and a son, Gregory.

Everett Withers
Defensive Coordinator & Secondary Coach
Fourth Season at UNC

Charlotte native Everett Withers enters his fourth season as North Carolina's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Withers is in his 24th season as a coach and has experience at both the professional and college level.

Decimated by personnel losses and injuries in 2010, Carolina's defense still ranked fourth in the ACC and 30th in the country as the Tar Heels played with a new lineup virtually every week. Defensive tackle Quinton Coples earned first-team All-ACC honors and linebacker Bruce Carter was a second-team pick. Following the season, five Tar Heel defensive players were taken in the NFL Draft, including first-round selection Robert Quinn, who missed all of the 2010 season.

In addition to his duties as the coordinator, Withers oversees the defensive secondary, which has developed into one of the best units in the country. Carolina picked off 19 passes in 2010 to match the previous year's total, and has 58 interceptions over the past three seasons. Safety Da'Norris Searcy, a fifth-round pick by Buffalo, led the team with four interceptions in 2010.

In 2009, the Tar Heels' defense was among the nation's elite, ranking sixth in total defense, 10th against the run, 13th in scoring defense and 14th in pass defense. Carolina was the only school in the country ranked in the top 15 in total yards allowed, scoring defense, run defense, pass defense, pass efficiency defense, third-down defense and tackles for losses. Six Carolina defenders were named all-conference, including first-team picks Quinn, Quan Sturdivant, Kendric Burney and Deunta Williams. Carolina had 19 interceptions and set a single-season ACC record with 508 interception return yards. Withers was nominated in 2009 for the Broyles Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

In 2008, the opportunistic Tar Heel defense ranked eighth in the country with 20 interceptions, just one shy of the school record.

Withers came to North Carolina after serving one season as the University of Minnesota's defensive coordinator in 2007.

Withers spent six seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2001-06 under head coach Jeff Fisher. From 2002-04, Withers helped the Titans defense tally 57 interceptions, which was the most for the franchise over a three-year period since 1993-95. The 57 interceptions also ranked fourth in the AFC and eighth overall during that time. The Titans totaled 21 picks in 2004, including 16 by the secondary.

In 2002, Withers directed a revamped secondary that added safeties Lance Schulters and rookie Tank Williams. The new arrangement helped the defense earn a top 10 ranking and Schulters' six interceptions were the most by a Titans safety since 1993. Withers also developed Andre Dyson into a starter as a rookie in 2001 and helped him total 16 interceptions during his four-year Titan career, including six his final season.

Prior to working with the Titans, Withers was defensive backs coach under Mack Brown at Texas from 1998-2000.

Withers joined the Longhorns after three seasons (1995-97) as defensive coordinator at Louisville. While at Louisville, Withers helped current New York Giants All-Pro cornerback Sam Madison earn All-America honors for the Cardinals.

Withers' first National Football League experience came with the New Orleans Saints where he worked as defensive quality control in 1994. Prior to his experience with the Saints, Withers was defensive backs coach at Southern Mississippi for two seasons (1992-93) and outside linebackers coach at Tulane in 1991. The first three years of Withers' coaching career came at Austin Peay, where he was defensive coordinator (1988-89) and special teams/wide receivers coach (1990).

Withers earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He was also a standout defensive back and captain for the Mountaineers from 1981-85. Withers and his wife, Kara, have two children, Tia and Pierce.

Corey Holliday
Associate Athletic Director
Football Administration
11th Season at UNC
UNC Letterwinner, 1990-93

Corey Holliday, who played for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, is in his 11th year with the football program. He was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Administration in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Dick Baddour and head coach Butch Davis.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday graduated as the Carolina career record holder for most receiving yards (2,447), a mark he held until it was broken by Hakeem Nicks in 2008. Holliday is also fourth in career receptions. Holliday caught a pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93 and was a team co-captain as a junior and senior.

Holliday played four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC's Educational Foundation, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

He holds two degrees from North Carolina, including a B.S. in business administration in 1993 and a master's in sports administration in 1997. Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

Scott Trulock
Head Athletic Trainer for Football
Fifth Season at UNC

Scott Trulock is in his fifth season as the team's Head Athletic Trainer for Football, where he heads a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants. Trulock and his staff work to keep Carolina's football student-athletes healthy and to rehabilitate any injuries quickly and successfully.

Trulock came to Carolina after spending 11 years in the National Football League. He served as the assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos on Mike Shanahan's staff from 2004-06. Previously, he was the director of rehabilitation in Tampa Bay under head coach Jon Gruden from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when Tampa Bay knocked off the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Trulock began his career as assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98 and also worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001.

While working in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFTAS). Within the Society, he served as the director of research for the PFATS Research and Education Foundation. In this role, he was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. In addition, Trulock has presented at many local, state, and national meetings.

The return to Carolina is a homecoming of sorts for Trulock, as he received his master's degree in athletic training from UNC in 1996. The position with the Football program presented him the opportunity to re-join one of the top sports medicine programs in the country. Actively involved in research since his days as a student at Carolina, Trulock utilizes the full complement of physicians, faculty and researchers in the sports medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Trulock earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine at Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

Marcus Berry
Director of Player Personnel
Third Season at UNC

Marcus Berry joined the football program in 2009 and is in his third season as Carolina's Director of Player Personnel. In that role, Berry helps coordinate Carolina's recruiting efforts, working closely with assistant coach and recruiting coordinator Allen Mogridge. He helps arrange and manage on-campus recruiting visits and promotes and markets the high school coaches clinic and summer camps.

A native of Cleveland, Berry played football at West Virginia and graduated in 1990 with a degree in sports management. He worked four years for the NBA's Washington Bullets as an account manager in the ticket and sponsorship department. He then worked two years in the insurance and banking industry before joining the coaching staff at Friendly High School in Ft. Washington, Md. Berry served 11 years at Friendly where he also taught history, health and physical education. Friendly won three state championships during his tenure.

Berry completed two NFL player personnel and scouting internships, one with the Green Bay Packers in 2003 and another with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2007. Berry resides in Durham, N.C.

Joe Haydon
Director of Football Operations
Eighth Season at UNC

Joe Haydon enters his eighth year with the Tar Heels and sixth as the team's director of operations. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006. Haydon is married to the former Melissa Mecham.

Joe & Melissa Haydon

Christopher Luke
Director of Football Video Operations
Fourth Season at UNC

Christopher Luke enters his fourth year as Carolina's Director of Football Video Operations. Luke manages all facets of internal team video and game analysis needs for the football coaching staff and players.

Prior to working at UNC, Luke was the assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M from 2004-08. Luke was the leader in educating and implementing a file transfer program allowing all Big 12 schools to be the first BCS conference to successfully exchange football game video over its peer to peer network. Previously, Luke worked for two years at the University of Missouri as the assistant director of video operations and was in charge of the daily operations of the football staff while assisting in the video management of 22 sports. Prior to that appointment, Luke did his graduate work in the speech communication instructional technology department at Northern Illinois University while serving as the football video coordinator for two seasons. Luke began his career at Eastern Illinois University as the student video coordinator in 1994, and graduated with bachelor of arts in speech communications with an emphasis in radio/television production in December of 1998.

Luke is in his fourth year as the Vice President of the Collegiate Sports Video Association, which promotes the role of the video professional in sports.

Luke is a native of Hoopeston, Ill. He is married to the former Sabra Hubbert of Sikeston, Missouri. They have two sons, Travis, 5, and Truman, 3.

The Luke Family: Chris, Sabra, Travis & Truman

Dominic Morelli enters his 31st season with the Carolina football program. He oversees the UNC football equipment room and business operations, including the yearly football budget.

Morelli began as Carolina's equipment manager in 1980 under then head coach Dick Crum. He has worked for five Carolina head coaches in his tenure as equipment manager. He was named Carolina's Ernie Williamson Award in 2003 as the athletic department's top employee.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Morelli earned his degree from Guilford College in 1980.

Morelli attended Ledford High School where he was a student manager for current UNC assistant coach Ken Browning.

Morelli and his wife, Nana, have a daughter, Kaitlin and a son, Troy Joseph.

The Morelli Family: Nana, Kaitlin, Troy & Dominic

Andre' Williams, a former Tar Heel tailback, is in his fifth year as Carolina's Director of Football Student-Athlete Development. In that role, Williams works with the players in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing, community service projects and as a liaison with the academic support program and compliance office.

Williams lettered at Carolina in 2000 and 2001 before a back injury forced him to stop playing football. He was the Tar Heels' leading rusher in 2001, when Carolina went 8-5 and won the Peach Bowl over Auburn. He also earned Academic All-ACC honors in 2001.

Andre' & Shayla Williams

Williams graduated from Carolina in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in management and society. He worked one year for the Atlantic Coast Conference office before returning to Chapel Hill to earn a Master's degree in sports administration. Williams is married to the former Shayla Higginbotham, and they have a newborn daughter, Waverly.

Tommy Love Davis, a former Tar Heel defensive end, is in his first season as Carolina's defensive graduate assistant coach. Davis, who played for the Tar Heels from 2002-05, had been working in private business the last two years in Maryland and Washington, D.C.

A native of Dudley, N.C., Davis started three consecutive seasons at defensive end and was an honorable-mention All-ACC selection in 2005 after leading the team with 10 tackles for losses and eight sacks. Davis finished his career with 153 tackles. Following his senior season, he was signed as a free agent by the New Orleans Saints. He also played for the New York Giants and Washington Redskins in 2007-08.

He and his wife, Juanita, reside in Chapel Hill.

Jason Onyebuagu enters his first season as an offensive graduate assistant coach and will work primarily with UNC's offensive linemen.

Onyebuagu comes to Chapel Hill after serving one season as the offensive line coach at Warren Central High School in Indianapolis. He was a four-year letterwinner at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Ill., from 2006-09. He earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2009 and was a second-team selection in 2008.

Onyebuagu served as team captain as a senior. He played in 51 games and started 38 at guard and center. After completing his college playing career, Onyebuagu was signed as a free agent by the Jacksonville Jaguars and participated in the team's mini-camp.

A native of Indianapolis, Onyebuagu earned his degree in corporate communications from NIU in 2009.

HOLDEN THORP

CHANCELLOR

AT CAROLINA, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, chaired a powerhouse chemistry department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies, and succeeded as an administrator.

As the 10th chancellor, Thorp draws from those experiences in leading Carolina, one of the world's great research universities.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in UNC traditions dating to the 1800s. When he graduated from Terry Sanford High School, only one college was on his application list — Carolina, where he earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university — where research and teaching are done by the same people — allowed Thorp to work in chemistry labs with top faculty and inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After teaching a year at NC State, he returned in 1993 to UNC, where he was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and chair of the chemistry department before becoming chancellor in 2008.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success," he says.

The University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both-and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state," Thorp says.

Under Thorp, Carolina seeks to raise $125 million in private gifts to implement "Innovate@Carolina: Important Ideas for a Better World," a roadmap developed by alumni and friends experienced in leading innovation in science, business, medicine, nonprofits and academia. One result is UNC's role in a consortium created by a $3.6 million gift from the Blackstone Charitable Foundation to help Research Triangle develop a network of entrepreneurial assistance similar to those in Silicon Valley and the Boston Corridor. Partners include Duke, NC State, NC Central and the Center for Entrepreneurial Development. The network has the potential over a decade to create jobs, attract seed, startup and expansion capital, and generate revenue.

> "Our biggest contribution to North Carolina is sending bright, capable young people to communities across the state to become the next generation of leaders."

Thorp is a member of President Obama's National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. As a result, the University hosted the council's first national forum in Chapel Hill. Thorp co-authored "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," a UNC Press book that makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change. Royalties support innovation at UNC.

The chancellor serves on the U.S. Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative for the Council on Competitiveness. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA and invented technology for electronic DNA chips that led to 19 issued or pending U.S. patents.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma. ▪

Keep up with Chancellor Thorp and Carolina by following him on Twitter at @chanthorp or read his blog at holden.unc.edu.

Dick Baddour is in his 15th year as director of athletics and his 46th in service to his alma mater. The Goldsboro, N.C., native has the second-longest current tenure among athletic directors in the Atlantic Coast Conference and is one of three to serve as Carolina's director for 10 or more years since the Tar Heels joined the league in 1954. Baddour's tenure has been noted by athletic and academic achievements across the board in UNC's broad-based, 28-sport program.

The Tar Heels have won 13 national championships under his leadership, including seven in women's soccer, three in field hockey, two in men's basketball and one in men's soccer, and won three football bowl games and had numerous Top 10 national finishes in Olympic Sports. Twenty UNC men's and women's teams have combined for 63 ACC championships, more than any other school in that time. UNC has led the league in the number of team championships seven times.

In 2010-11, Carolina was one of only two schools in the country to play in a football bowl game, the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and the College Baseball World Series. The Tar Heels finished sixth nationally in the Learfield Directors Cup. Overall, Carolina has averaged a seventh-place finish in the Directors Cup and finished first among ACC schools 10 times in Baddour's 14 years at the helm. The sixth-place finish in the Directors Cup marked the ninth top 10 finish by the Tar Heels in the last 10 years, including top four showings in 2006, 2007 and 2009.

The Tar Heels earned eight Top 10 national finishes, including second in field hockey, third in men's soccer and women's lacrosse, fifth in baseball and men's basketball, eighth in women's tennis and ninth in women's basketball and men's lacrosse.

Baddour emphasizes academic achievement and the overall student experience. Last year, 256 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll and student-athletes earned 223 Dean's List honors. Seven programs ranked in the top 10 percent in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate over the last four years and 15 scored a perfect 1,000. The APR accounts for eligibility, retention and graduation and provides a measure of each team's academic performance.

In 2009-10, Carolina won national championships in field hockey and women's soccer and reached the national semifinals in men's soccer, women's lacrosse and women's tennis. The 2008-09 season was one of the finest in Carolina history as the Tar Heels finished second nationally in the Learfield Directors Cup. Women's soccer and men's basketball won NCAA championships, men's soccer and women's lacrosse reached the NCAA finals, baseball advanced to the College World Series for the fourth year in a row and football played in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. UNC became the first school in ACC history to play in the men's basketball Final Four, the College World Series and a football bowl game in the same year.

Baddour created the Carolina Leadership Academy seven years ago. The program, a training model for student-athletes, coaches and administrators, develops leadership skills through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources. Carolina's coaches consider the program an overwhelming success and it is a model for schools across the nation.

Since becoming then director of athletics in June 1997, Baddour has hired head coaches in 12 sports, overseen renovations or created plans to update virually every facility in the athletic complex, expanded the direction and staffing for student-athlete services and set the program on sound financial footing.

The Loudermilk Center for Student-Athlete Excellence will open in August 2011, capping a five-year project that Baddour oversaw that will house a new academic support center for student-athletes, the Carolina Leadership Academy, Olympic sports' strength and conditioning center, visiting locker room, club seats and individual suites. The Center for Excellence provides space for academic support for all 28 of Carolina's varsity programs and creates additional revenue for the department through the sale of premium seats.

The athletic department and Rams Club raised nearly $300 million over the last 10-plus years in support of the Carolina First campaign, increasing the scholarship endowment to where it is the largest for a public school in the country. Baddour developed funding models for facility enhancement projects, scholarships and operating budgets. He negotiated partnerships with Nike to outfit the athletic program, with Learfield Communications to direct UNC's multi-media properties, with Wachovia for on-site sponsorship in the Smith Center and Aramark for concessions. The Nike deal was widely praised as one of the most socially conscious contracts of its kind with respect to global labor issues.

Baddour has overseen a number of facility enhancements throughout his tenure. Recent projects in addition to the renovations at Kenan Stadium include Carmichael Arena, which underwent a $30 million renovation; the Stallings-Evans Sports Medicine Center, a facility for student-athletes and the student body at large for sports injury rehabilitation; Boshamer Stadium, which underwent a $25 million renovation and is viewed as one of the top baseball facilities in the country; the men's basketball offices and new Skipper Bowles Hall in the Smith Center; and the Ernie Williamson Athletics Center, which houses the athletic administrative offices, the Rams Club and Carolina Basketball Museum.

Baddour began his UNC career in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. He served as Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement.

Baddour spent 11 years as John Swofford's top assistant before being named the Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In 2001, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have three children. Allen, a superior court judge for Orange and Chatham Counties, and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Henry and Jack; David, an attorney with RTP-based Womble-Carlyle, and his wife, Carey, have two daughters, Lauren and Julia, and son, Johnathan; Jennifer, a family therapist in private practice in Chapel Hill, and her husband, Kevin Snead, have a son, William, and a daughter, Lynley.

THE RAMS CLUB — A NEED FOR GROWTH

The cost of competing at the highest level and educating outstanding student-athletes continues to climb. The Rams Club must grow its membership and level of support to keep Carolina as one of the nation's premier athletics programs both athletically and academically.

The Rams Club has witnessed impressive growth over the past several years—51% of members have joined within the last 10 years. Membership in The Rams Club is available through endowment and annual gifts. Gifts of all sizes are important—47% of all Annual Fund gifts are between $100 and $1,000. This growth must continue to meet the escalating needs of Carolina's 28 varsity sports and its student-athletes.

Rams Club members provide a vital component to the success of Tar Heel student-athletes. Donations provide Carolina student-athletes the opportunity to proudly say, "I'm a Tar Heel."

Annual Fund

Donations through the Annual Fund offers The Rams Club the opportunity to meet immediate funding needs-primarily the funds needed to bridge the difference between the endowment's yield and the actual scholarship costs and other important projects for Carolina's student-athletes.

Carolina Forever — Planned Giving

As the Rams Club's planned giving program, Carolina Forever offers donors an opportunity to make a lasting impact by involving Carolina Athletics in their estate planning. Carolina Forever's mission is to ensure that the university continues to provide in perpetuity the unique opportunity to experience what it means to be a Tar Heel student-athlete in a broad-based athletics program.

Scholarship Endowment

The Rams Club's Scholarship Endowment Trust is the largest athletic scholarship endowment in the nation. The Scholarship Endowment Trust is built upon gifts from Carolina supporters who have endowed Full or Half Scholarships in support of student-athletes which provide in perpetuity the support to a broad-based athletics program.

Sports Endowments

The Sport Endowments program provides additional funding for the operating budgets of each of the 28 sports. Donors can make gifts to an individual sport with the yield from that trust made available to the appropriate coach for use in budget-enhancing activities like recruiting, team travel, assistant coaches' salaries and more. With the gifts designated into an endowment, these gifts will provide a continuous stream of usable income in perpetuity.

I'M A TAR HEEL

I'M A TAR HEEL

I believe in Carolina...and in its dedication to do things the right way. I'm Tydreke Powell, and I'm a Tar Heel.

I RESPECT what it means to wear the Carolina jersey. I respect that the Carolina jersey means winning, and winning the right way.

I BELIEVE it means something special to be a Tar Heel. It means winning championships while representing our University and its values.

I am UNITED with members of the Carolina Family. The Carolina Family united generations of past Tar Heels, unites Tar Heels today, and will unite future generations of Tar Heels.

I am GRATEFUL to call Chapel Hill home. I am grateful to be part of a campus rich with academic and athletic tradition.

I am HONORED to stand together with other Tar Heels as I cheer for my fellow student-athletes on game day and on graduation day.

I am DETERMINED to make our University and Carolina Athletics the best in the nation. It is what binds us together, and provides a faith in our University that is unmatched.

I am COMMITTED to Carolina through The Rams Club. I share a commitment to ensure the academic and athletic achievement of our more than 450 student-athletes.

I respect. I believe. I am united.
I am grateful. I am honored.
I am determined. I am committed.

I'M A TAR HEEL.

THE NEW KENAN

THE PROJECT

Carolina's commitment to the student-athlete took a significant step with Phase II of the New Kenan Expansion the completion of the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and the Blue Zone in the east end zone of the stadium.

The new Loudermilk Center for Excellence offers Tar Heel student-athletes the essential state-of-the-art services that they so richly deserve:

- the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center
- a home for the Carolina Leadership Academy
- an impressive 13,600-square-foot Olympic Sports Strength & Conditioning Center
- a Men's Lacrosse complex with a locker room, offices and meeting areas
- office and operations space for Carolina Athletics, and more!

The Rams Club continues to raise money for the New Kenan Expansion, as half of the $70 million project will be funded through traditional gifts. Please help our student-athletes enjoy this brand new facility—and receive bonus priority points for your donation—by making a contribution to the New Kenan Expansion. To make your gift, go to www.ramsclub.com, or call The Rams Club at 919-843-2000.

BLUE ZONE AT THE NEW KENAN

The Blue Zone will open in 2011! This new premium seating area for game days at Kenan Stadium features:

- the Concourse Club—a 1,700-seat club area close to the action
- the Upper Club—a 800-seat club area with additional amenities
- Premium Suites—20 private luxury boxes overlooking Kenan Stadium

KENAN STADIUM

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact.

This fall, Carolina will open the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a $7.5 million donation to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that will serve all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility will provide classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It also will be home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation is funding the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone, offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project adds 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project will also tie the north and south concourses together and will provide the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

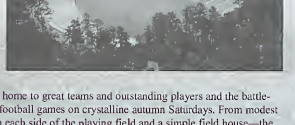
For more information and photos of the Carolina Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, please visit NewKenan.com.

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out ... The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."
– Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927



Kenan Memorial Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago – quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings—single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house—the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and now the addition of "Blue Zone" seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, was the first project to connect the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

THE KENAN FAMILY

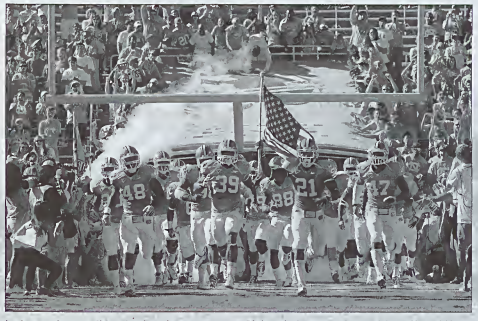
James Kenan of Duplin was one of the original trustees of the fledgling campus in Chapel Hill and was present on Oct. 12, 1793, when the cornerstone to Old East was laid. Since then, the Kenan Family has held an integral role in the evolution of UNC as one of the top academic and athletic institutions in the nation.

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

William Rand Kenan Sr. and his wife Mary Hargrave Kenan are the namesakes for Kenan Memorial Stadium. Kenan was the grandson of James Kenan and the father of William Rand Kenan Jr., whose fortune made in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads and hotels financed the construction of the stadium in 1926-27. William Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate and Tar Heel halfback in football and later a professor in chemistry, honored his parents with the naming of the stadium.

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan (right), a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.



the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box are the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf includes an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

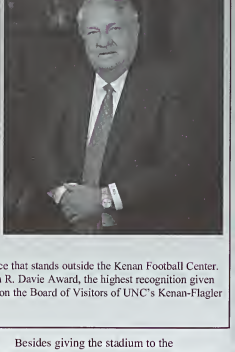
William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK



The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a long-time friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk in 2011 remained as chairman of the company. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Visitors of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School.

Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the North Side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12,

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building will carry on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 249-162-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in the third game played there as Carolina whipped Wake Forest, 65-0, in the 1928 season opener.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997 and 60,000 in 1998.

At the East end of the stadium is the Kenan Fieldhouse, home of the Student-Athlete Development Center. A 20,000 square foot building, it is a one-of-a-kind facility. For study purposes, it contains a language lab, video room, computer lab, theatre-style lecture hall, several reading rooms and numerous tutorial rooms. UNC's academic counseling staff has the advantage of using the most modern techniques in assisting student-athletes.

Capacity crowds have come to be expected at Kenan. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record-shattering crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

KENAN STADIUM THROUGH THE YEARS - A PICTORIAL HISTORY

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Tar Heels Knock Off Vols in Music City Bowl To Finish 8-5

North Carolina capped off a turbulent 2010 season with a thrilling 30-27 double-overtime victory over Tennessee in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl. The Tar Heels (8-5 overall, 4-4 ACC) finished with eight wins for the third straight season and won their first bowl game under head coach Butch Davis. For a complete recap of the bowl win, see pages 107-108.

Team Captains

• Quarterback T.J. Yates, tailback Johnny White, linebacker Bruce Carter and defensive tackle Tydreke Powell were voted permanent team captains midway through the 2010 season. The special teams captains, which are determined by the coaches' point system, were Ryan Taylor and Zach Brown.

Yates Establishes More Than 40 School Records

• Senior quarterback T.J. Yates (Marietta, Ga.) established more than 40 school records at North Carolina, including career passing yards and single-season passing yards. Yates had an outstanding season completing 66.8 percent of his attempts (282 of 422) for 3,418 yards and 19 touchdowns. A 2010 honorable-mention All-ACC pick, he ranked second in the league in pass efficiency, second in passing yards and second in total offense. He is the first player in school history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a single-season.

• On the UNC single-season charts, Yates ranks first in passing yards, completions and attempts, and second in touchdown passes.

• In North Carolina's 37-35 win at Florida State, Yates was 24 of 35 for a school-record 439 yards and three touchdowns. He became the first player in program history to pass for 400 or more yards twice in a career (later set the mark for a third time vs. NC State). Yates also set the school record with 443 total yards of offense vs. the Seminoles. He had 439 yards passing and four rushing.

• Against NC State, Yates finished 33 of 44 for 411 yards and two touchdowns, his fourth 300-plus yard game of the season and his third 400-plus yard game. His 33 completions were a school single-game record. The previous record was 31 by Kevin Anthony against LSU in 1985 and Darian Durant against Syracuse in 2003. Yates' 411 yards were the most by a Tar Heel in Kenan Stadium, eclipsing the previous best of 388 by Ronald Curry against Georgia Tech in 2000. He also set a new UNC single-season record for passing yards against the Wolfpack.

• Yates had six 300-yard passing games in his career, including four in 2010. He threw for 200 or more yards 23 times.

• Yates scored seven rushing touchdowns in his career. He had a career-long 24-yard run vs. Virginia Tech.

• Yates had nine completions of 50+ yards in 2010, with four of those hookups going for touchdowns. Yates completed a 97-yard TD pass to Jheranie Boyd against LSU, an 81-yarder to Jones against Virginia and a 52-yarder to Erik Highsmith against Georgia Tech. Yates has completed 21 career passes of 50 yards or more, with 13 of those going for touchdowns.

Seven Tar Heels Named All-ACC

• Seven Carolina football players were named to the 2010 All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams as selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA). Defensive tackle Quinton Coples earned first-team honors, while offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and linebacker Bruce Carter were named to the second team. Wide receiver Dwight Jones, tailback Johnny White, place-kicker Casey Barth and quarterback T.J. Yates were named honorable mention.

• A native of Kinston, N.C., Coples was the only defensive tackle in the league in the top 10 in both sacks (10.0) and tackles for losses (15.5). He also ranked fourth on the team with 59 tackles and has 12 quarterback pressures.

• Carter, a senior from Havelock, N.C., was named one of five finalists for the Butkus Award, which is presented to the nation's top linebacker. This season he posted 57 tackles, blocked a punt and picked off a pass. Cooper, a sophomore from Wilmington, N.C., was Carolina's top performing offensive lineman. He started every game and graded out at 83 percent.

• Yates ranked second in the league in all three major quarterbacking categories, including passing yards, pass efficiency and total offense. The Marietta, Ga., native also led the league with a 66.8 percent completion rate.

• Jones, a native of Burlington, N.C., ranked fourth in the league with 72.8 yards per game. After posting 104 yards in the first five games of the season, he finished with 946 yards on 62 catches.

• Despite missing the last three regular season games with an fractured clavicle, White led the Tar Heels with 720 yards rushing, an average of 80.0 per game. White, a native of Asheville, N.C., averaged 112.0 all-purpose yards, which ranked fifth in the ACC.

• Barth, a former teammate of Cooper at Wilmington's Hoggard High School, converted 19 of 22 field goal attempts this season, including a long of 49. He made all 38 extra point attempts this season and is the current school record-holder with 71 consecutive extra points made.

40-Start Club

• Carolina had four different players start 40-or-more games, led by safety Deunta Williams (47). Quarterback T.J. Yates (45), cornerback Kendric Burney (43) and linebacker Bruce Carter (43). Williams and Burney entered the 2010 season with 38 consecutive starts.

Road Success

• UNC lost 20 consecutive road games outside the state of North Carolina from 2002 to 2007. Since winning at Rutgers in 2008, Carolina is now 9-5 in games outside the state, including wins over Miami, Connecticut, Virginia Tech, Boston College, Rutgers, Virginia, Florida State and Tennessee.

• Carolina was 4-1 in road games this year, including wins over Rutgers, Virginia, Florida State and Duke. That does not include the neutral site game vs. Tennessee in Nashville, which the Tar Heels won, 30-27.

Coples Posts Outstanding Junior Season

• Junior Quinton Coples quietly had one of the best seasons in the country for a defensive tackle, registering 15.5 tackles for losses and 10.0 sacks. He ranked third in the league and 16th in the country in sacks per game.

Dwight Jones' Breakout Season

• Junior Dwight Jones became one of Carolina's top receivers this year after seeing limited playing time during his first two years in Chapel Hill. He led the Tar Heels with 62 receptions and 946 receiving yards and four touchdowns. Jones ranked fourth in the ACC with 72.8 yards per game and sixth with 4.8 catches per game.

• Jones had just 104 yards in the first five games of the season before exploding for 198 yards on seven catches and two touchdowns in a win at Virginia. In a four-game span this year, he had 28 catches for 612 yards, including three 100-yard games (7 for 198 at Virginia, 9 for 107 vs. William & Mary, 8 for 233 at Florida State).

PK Connor Barth

Barth Boots It

• Place kicker Casey Barth, a second-team All-ACC pick in 2009, was a consistent performer for the Tar Heels, converting 19 of 22 field goal attempts this year and all 38 PATs. For his career, Barth has made 50 of 62 field goal attempts and 105 of 106 PATs. He has made a school-record 71 consecutive PATs, breaking the previous mark of 66 of Jeff Reed from 2000-01. Barth's only career miss came against The Citadel in the first game of the 2009 season.

• Barth booted a 46-yard field goal in the win at Florida State. He also connected from 31 and 22 yards. The 22-yarder came with 55 seconds remaining in the game and proved to be the game-winner. It is his second career game-winning kick. He also hit a game-winner as time expired at Virginia Tech in 2009.

• Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal as time expired to send the Tennessee game into overtime. He then connected on a 23-yard field goal to beat the Vols in the second overtime.

White Finishes Strong

• Senior tailback Johnny White returned to tailback this season after two years as a cornerback and wide receiver. He had his best season with 720 rushing yards on 130 attempts, and also had 288 yards receiving on 24 catches. He averaged 6.5 yards every time he touched the ball this year.

ATLANTA (AP) - North Carolina nearly rallied from a 20-point halftime deficit before losing 30-24 to LSU on Saturday night.

Patrick Peterson had 257 yards - including an 87-yard touchdown - on kickoff and punt returns, leading No. 21 LSU (1-0) to a 30-10 halftime lead.

But No. 18 North Carolina (0-1) made a game of it, scoring two second-half touchdowns, then getting two shots at the win after recovering on onside kick and a fumble. T.J. Yates drove the Heels to the LSU 2-yard line and got off a pair of passes into the end zone after throwing for a career-high 412 yards.

Both slipped through the hands of Zack Pianolto.

Backed up against his own goal line, Yates rolled to his right and heaved a pass out of the end zone that Jheranie Boyd took to the other end zone for a 97-yard touchdown - the longest play from scrimmage in North Carolina history. Yates then hooked up with Erik Highsmith on a 14-yard touchdown with 2 1/2 minutes remaining.

North Carolina recovered an onside kick, but LSU stopped that drive by forcing Yates to fumble as he tried to scramble. Trying to run out the clock, Stevon Ridley fumbled and the Tar Heels recovered, getting one more shot for an improbable victory.

Former quarterback Russell Shepard, now playing receiver to take advantage of his speed, hauled in o touchdown pass and broke off o 50-yard scoring run for LSU. And the current quarterback, Jordan Jefferson, finished off the first half with a 51-yard scoring pass to Rueben Randle.

Plenty of players stepped up for the Tar Heels, no one more than Yates. He completed 28 of 45 and had three touchdown passes. His favorite receiver wos Boyd, who had six catches for 221 yards, making him only the fourth player in North Carolina history to have 200 receiving yards in a game.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Joshua Nesbitt ran for a touchdown and threw for another to help Georgia Tech beat North Carolina 30-24 on Saturday.

Nesbitt ran for a tying touchdown late in the third quarter, then directed the drive that ended with Scott Blair's 46-yard field goal that put the Yellow Jackets ahead for good early in the fourth. Orwin Smith and Roddy Jones also scored touchdowns for Georgia Tech (2-1, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), which overcome some second-half missues after o mistoke-free opening half to hang on for its 11th win in 13 meetings.

Johnny Wh the ron for o coreer-high 113 yords and a touchdown for the Tar Heels (0-2, 0-1), who were short-handed again due to an NCAA investigotion into ogent-related benefits and possible ocodemic misconduct.

T.J. Yates pushed the Tar Heels all the way to the LSU 6-yard line before missing on two throws into the end zone to end that game. This time, however, the Tar Heels' final drive stalled just across midfield when Brad Jefferson took down White well short of the marker on fourth down with 1:16 left.

After Georgia Tech scored on oll three first-half possessions, Nesbitt's bod decision pitch led to the game's first turnover and set up White's 4-yard touchdown in the third quorter for a 24-17 lead. A few minutes later, the Tor Heels stopped the Yellow Jockets on a fourth-and-2 near midfield, which seemed to set them up to take control.

But Yates fumbled on a handoff attempt and Jefferson pounced on the loose ball. That set up another chance for Nesbitt, who scrombled to his left on o third-and-long and found Jones open on the left side for o short pass. Jones broke o tockle and sprinted 41 yards to the Tor Heels' 5, and Nesbitt scored on a keeper two plays loter to tie it.

Nesbitt ran for 104 yords, helping the Yellow Jackets finish with 372 yords on the ground and 448 overoll.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. (AP) -T.J. Yates threw o go-ahead third-quarter touchdown and North Carolina's defense made two late stands to lead the undermanned Tar Heels to a 17-13 victory over Rutgers on Saturday.

Yates gave North Carolina (1-2) the lead with o 5-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Taylor os the Tar Heels ovoided their first 0-3 start since 2003.

Matt Merletti intercepted Tom Savage's pass ot the Tar Heels 6 with less than 3 minutes left. North Carolina forced Rutgers to turn the ball over on downs after the Scarlet Knights took over at the Tor Heels 34 with 2:21 remaining.

Bruce Carter set up the Tor Heels other two scores with on interception and o blocked punt. The pick set up a 1-yard run by Johnny White and the block led to a 25-yard field goal by Casey Barth.

Mohamed Sanu scored on a 10-yard run and Son Te kicked field goals of 32 and 39 yards for Rutgers (1-2) which was playing its first BCS opponent this seoson.

North Carolina took the field with 12 players ineligible, including o total of seven starters on offense and defense, because of a continuing NCAA investigation.

Yates, who finished 22 of 30 for 204 yards and an interception, led them on a 14-play, 80-yard morch during which he converted on three third-down plays and also got a poss interference call on another third down to keep the drive alive.

Taylor capped the march by bulling over on his 5-yard catch, although the officials reviewed the score when the ball come out of his hands near the goal line. He had crossed the plane of the end zone.

A 46-yard kickoff return and o personol foul set up Te's 39 yard field goal on the next series, but Carter's blocked made it a four-point game with 9:34 to go.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Shaun Draughn scored three second-half touchdowns while Da'Norris Searcy returned an interception for a touchdown in his first game back to help North Carolina beat East Carolina 42-17 on Saturday.

Draughn ran for 137 yards for the Tar Heels (2-2), who have won two straight games. Johnny White also ran for a career-high 140 yards while T.J. Yates threw two TD passes, giving North Carolina a win against its instate rival here for the second straight season.

Dominique Davis threw for a touchdown for the Pirates (2-2), who got off a solid start only to see the game slip steadily away from there. East Carolina has now lost two straight games after opening Ruffin McNeill's tenure at his alma mater with a pair of wins against Conference USA opponents.

North Carolina had plenty to feel good about with this win. Draughn fell a yard short of his career high and got stronger against the Pirates' struggling defense, while White overcame an ankle injury that had him questionable for the game with a strong performance of his own.

It marked the first time in six years that the Tar Heels had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game, and the first time in five years that the Pirates had allowed two 100-yard rushers.

Draughn scored on a 1-yard run late in the third quarter to make it a two-possession game, then bulled over defenders at the pylon for a 4-yard score midway through the fourth. He scored on a 13-yard run in the final minute, capping an eight-play drive in which he carried the ball on every play.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Johnny White rushed for two touchdowns and gained 179 total yards, and North Carolina held on to beat Clemson 21-16 on Saturday for its third straight victory.

White caught six passes for 90 yards, finished with 89 yards rushing and scored on runs of 4 and 26 yards.

T.J. Yates was 18-for-34 for 164 yards with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Jheranie Boyd for the Tar Heels (3-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference). They coaxed just enough production out of the offense to beat the Tigers for the first time since 2001.

Kyle Parker's 74-yard TD pass to Jaron Brown with 5:31 left pulled the Tigers (2-3, 0-2) within five, but they couldn't convert the two-point attempt and didn't get the ball back until only 13 seconds remained. Parker then threw three deep passes, all incompletions.

Two plays after his 12-yard catch from Yates on fourth-and-4, White bounced off a series of tacklers on his way to the end zone. That 26-yarder came with 6:53 to play, when he bounced off a series of tacklers and scored from 26 yards out to extend North Carolina's lead to 21-10.

Jamie Harper pulled the Tigers to 14-10 with a 10-yard touchdown run with 5 1/2 minutes left in the third. Clemson drove into North Carolina territory on its next possession, but the drive stalled at the 24 and Chandler Catanzaro's 42-yard field goal was wide right.

Clemson had pulled to 7-3 with 6 1/2 minutes left in the half on Catanzaro's 48-yard field goal.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)--T.J. Yates threw for three touchdowns and North Carolina won for the first time since 1981 at Scott Stadium, beating Virginia 44-10 Saturday night.

The Tar Heels (4-2, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) had lost 14 consecutive games on the Cavaliers' home field but dominated throughout this one. Yates hit Dwight Jones with a short slant on the first play and Jones went 81 yards for a touchdown after breaking one tackle.

Jones had a huge day, catching six passes for 188 yards and two scores in the first half. He missed a third TD when he stepped out at the half-yard line on a 54-yard reception and finished with seven catches for 198 yards. He arrived with 12 for just 104 yards this year.

Marc Verica struggled mightily for Virginia (2-4, 0-3), throwing three interceptions. Kevin Reddick returned the third one 22 yards for a touchdown and Verica was pulled.

MIAMI (AP) - Sean Spence and Brandon Harris danced toward the sideline in such exaggerated celebration that they drew a penalty. Randy Shannon chest-bumped 310-pound left tackle Orlando Franklin. Allen Bailey shook his fist and screamed at no one in particular.

Jacory Harris threw three touchdown passes to move into second place on Miami's career list, Damien Berry ran for his fourth straight game of 100-plus yards and the 25th-ranked Hurricanes scored the game's last 30 points to easily beat North Carolina 33-10 on Saturday night.

"They challenged each other to step up and make plays," said Shannon, the Miami coach who beat North Carolina for the first time in four tries. "I think that's one thing about this football team--guys are starting to develop a mentality of what we're trying to get done. The great teams and the great players step up and challenge each player."

Berry finished with 109 yards and a touchdown for the Hurricanes (5-2, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference). LaRon Byrd, Travis Benjamin and Leonard Hankerson had touchdown catches for Miami and Spence forced a key fumble in the opening quarter to deny North Carolina a touchdown.

Johnny White had a 76-yard touchdown run for North Carolina (4-3, 2-2), the longest carry for the Tar Heels in more than nine years. White's score gave North Carolina a 10-3 lead in the second quarter, before Miami took over and denied the Tar Heels' bid for their first five-game winning streak since 2001.

Jacory Harris completed 21 of 32 passes for 217 yards for Miami. T.J. Yates was 12 of 21 for 140 yards and two interceptions for North Carolina, which got 85 yards from White and 71 more from Shaun Draughn.

Miami sacked Yates five times, a season-worst for North Carolina - with Bailey getting credited for 3 1/2 of them.

"The formula when you play against Miami is you don't want to play from behind," Davis said. "They've got some great defensive linemen who can put pressure on your quarterback."

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Johnny White's 67-yard touchdown run with 5:27 to play capped North Carolina's rally from 10 points down in the fourth quarter and lifted the Tar Heels past William & Mary 21-17 on Saturday.

White finished with a career-high 164 yards for North Carolina (5-3), which snapped the Tribe's six-game winning streak. After a lethargic first three quarters against a Football Championship Subdivision opponent, the Tar Heels finally got rolling in time to avoid being upset by a former teammate.

T.J. Yates was 23 of 33 for 238 yards with a 1-yard touchdown run and a 3-yard TD pass to Ryan Taylor.

Mike Paulus--Yates' former backup at North Carolina--nearly led William & Mary to another win against one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's big boys. He finished 24 of 35 for 209 yards and touchdowns of 6 and 9 yards to Chase Hill for the Tribe (6-2).

The Tar Heels trailed 17-7 after three quarters before finally putting together their most impressive drive of the day. They converted two fourth downs during an 18-play, 90-yard march that Yates capped with his short touchdown pass to Taylor to pull them to 17-14 with 8:32 left.

White--who had a 76-yard scoring run in last week's loss at Miami--struck from long distance again. He took a third-down handoff through the left side, stiff-armed safety Terrell Wells and cut back to the right on his way to the end zone.

Though these schools were playing for just the second time in roughly two decades, there was plenty of familiarity on the sidelines. North Carolina offensive coordinator John Shoop is the younger brother of Tribe defensive coordinator Bob Shoop.

Paulus was one of the key members of North Carolina coach Butch Davis' first recruiting class in 2007. He wound up playing in only four games, didn't attempt a pass in 2009 and transferred to William & Mary following last season in search of more playing time.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - T.J. Yates' record-setting performance delivered North Carolina a victory in a place it had never won before.

Yates threw for a school-record 439 yards, Casey Barth kicked his third goal, a 22-yarder, with 55 seconds left and the Tar Heels beat No. 24 Florida State 37-35 for their first victory in nine games in Tallahassee.

Florida State kicker Dustin Hopkins missed two field goals in the fourth quarter, including a 40-yard try with 7 seconds left.

Yates threw three touchdown passes and took the Tar Heels 72 yards on the winning drive to set up Barth's decisive kick. Yates' 31-yard completion to Dwight Jones was the big play in a drive that North Carolina coach Butch Davis called the best one in his four years at the school.

"Tonight was kind of somewhat to be honest with your microcosm of the whole season," North Carolina Davis said. "It seems like every week there's drama and adversity, challenges."

In a season in which the Tar Heels (6-3, 3-2) were expected to contend for the ACC championship they have dealt the loss of several star players because of a pair of NCAA investigations.

Still, they have salvaged the season by becoming bowl eligible and beating Florida State for only the second time in 18 meetings.

The Seminoles (6-3, 4-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) lost control of their own destiny in the league race after a 28-24 defeat at North Carolina State on Oct. 18, when Pander fumbled the ball inside the Wolfpack 5 in the waning seconds of the game.

Instead, the division will be a scramble to the finish--much like this game.

But the Seminoles couldn't get their offense restarted in the second half for a third straight week.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Tyrod Taylor hit Marcus Davis with a pair of third-quarter touchdown passes to help No. 16 Virginia Tech beat North Carolina 26-10 on Saturday.

Taylor threw for 249 yards while the defense lacked down the Tar Heels after halftime, helping the Hokies (8-2, 6-0 Atlantic Coast Canference) imprave to 4-0 in Chapel Hill since joining the league in 2004.

Virginia Tech entered Saturday with a chance ta wrap up the ACC's Coastal Division title for the fourth time in six seasans, but Miami's easy win at Georgia Tech earlier in the day delayed the Hokies' caranation. Virginia Tech travels ta Miami next weekend and needs to win ane af its finol twa games ta wrap up a berth in the league champianship game in Charlatte an Dec. 4.

As far the Tor Heels (6-4, 3-3), their slim chances of winning the division evaparated in a mosh of miscues and missed chances.

Virginia Tech trailed 10-9 at halftime after kicking three field goals, two when drives stolled after reaching the UNC 15 and 8. But Taylor found Davis far a 43-yard gain on the opening drive of the second holf, then connected with him agoin for the ga-ahead 11-yard score with 10:38 left in the period.

The touchdown capped a dominant third quarter for the Hokies, who outgained the Tar Heels 141-19 while watching their hasts do everything they could to help Virginia Tech inch closer to another division crown.

North Carolina committed a season-high six turnavers, with T.J. Yates throwing four interceptions o week after setting a school record with 439 yards possing in the program's first win ot Florida State.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Owen Spencer caught a tipped ball in the end zone far a tauchdawn an fourth down and T.J. Graham returned o punt 87 yards far another scare ta help North Carolina Stote rally past rival North Carolina 29-25 an Saturday.

Russell Wilson threw two tauchdawn passes far the Wolfpack (8-3, 5-2 Atlontic Coast Conference), including the imprabable 2-yard scare ta Spencer late in the third quorter. With the win, N.C. State put itself in pasitian ta claim the league's Atlontic Division title and earn o spat in the ACC champianship game by winning next weekend at Maryland.

The win alsa imprayed Tom O'Brien's Wolfpack ta 4-0 against Butch Davis' Tor Heels (6-5, 3-4) since the coaches task over their programs before the 2007 season..

First, the Tar Heels put together o goal-line stand to farce o fourth down, but O'Brien passed on o short field goal ta make it a one-possession game ond went for the tauchdawn. It oppeared ta be a mistake when Wilson faund himself scrambling around under pressure and lofting o desperate pass into a crawd in the right corner of the end zone.

Safety Do'Norris Searcy and receiver Darrell Davis oppeared ta tip the ball, which landed in Spencer's arms as he fell to the turf. Officials signaled for a tauchdawn, a call which staod after a replay review.

That lead ultimotely held, though T.J. Yates did everything he could to keep the Tor Heels in it. He directed a tauchdawn drive with about o minute left, but his desperote heave into traffic for the tying 2-point conversion-in-the same area where Spencer came up with the TD catch--fell incomplete.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - T.J. Yates threw far 264 yards and a tauchdawn, and North Carolina continued its daminance of Duke by holding off the Blue Devils 24-19 an Saturday.

Anthony Elzy rushed far a career-high 116 yards, and he and Shaun Draughn each had short scoring runs far the Tar Heels (7-5, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Canference), wha led 24-10 late before Duke (3-9, 1-7) made things interesting in the final 5 minutes.

They stuffed Draughn in the end zane for a safety, pulled within five an Brandan Connette's 2-yard tauchdawn run with 3:20 left, and forced a punt to get the ball back with 43 seconds left ot the Duke 24. But they cauldn't came up with a miracle finish.

Austin Kelly caught Seon Renfree's lost poss near midfield, but he was wropped up os time expired before he could find someone to take o lateral. That sealed North Carolina's 20th win in 21 meetings with Duke.

Renfree was 24 of 39 far 242 yords with two interceptians and a 9-yard tauchdawn pass to Kelly for Duke, which ended its season with a three-game losing streak.

Yates was 28 of 35, reached the 9,000-yard possing mark for his coreer and threw o 5-yard tauchdawn poss to Joshua Adams far the Tar Heels, wha had four scoring drives of at least 80 yards and converted 65 percent of their third downs. They snapped o twagome losing streak and locked up their third straight winning season.

Elzy scored on o 5-yard run and surpassed the previous high of 95 yards he set three years ago against Miomi. He helped North Carolino keep hold of the Victary Bell troveling traphy that goes to the winner of this game.

MUSIC MEN

By: Lee Pace

The wire service guys were already clicking out their lead paragraphs Thursday night on their laptops in the press area above LP Field: Tennessee freshman Tyler Bray passed for 292 yards and three touchdowns, the last an eight-yarder to Justin Hunter with just over five minutes to play, to lift the Volunteers to a 20-17 victory over North Carolina in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl Thursday night.

The Tennessee band was striking up the school's Rocky Top fight song, and the denizens swathed in orange were clearing their throats for yet another stanza: Once two strangers climbed on rocky top lookin' for a moonshine still; strangers ain't come back from rocky top, guess they never will.

As Tennessee took the ball with 1:36 to play, Tar Heel tailback Shaun Draughn slumped deadly still on the bench, his torso bent forward, his head buried in his hands. Dwight Jones shrugged off consolation pats from several teammates after having dropped a fourth-down pass that ended what appeared to be the Tar Heels' last gasp attack. Quarterback T.J. Yates was numb and despondent: He had thrown for 9,330 yards over four years and apparently the numbers stopped cold, then and there.

"A lot of guys didn't realize we'd get a second chance, myself included," Yates admitted an hour later.

But on one end of the Tar Heel bench, offensive line coach Sam Pittman told his players to keep loose, keep their heads in the game.

"All we need is three," Pittman said. "All we need is three."

Three points and not four, thank you very much Donte Paige-Moss. Tar Heel coach Butch Davis has mentioned at times over his four years at Carolina that a team's moxie can be defined in the most remote of chores--specifically the effort its special teams puts into blocking extra points and field goals. It has always struck me watching from the sidelines that no matter how much Davis and his defensive coaches might be irked that the Heels just surrendered a touchdown, they are every bit as intense and precise in signaling the kick-rush call into the defense and watching the ensuing play as they are during any routine snap.

"Are you going to lie down and give them the kick?" Davis muses. "Or are you going to get off the ground after giving up a touchdown, dust yourself off and give a hundred percent and try to block one? You never know when that one point will make a difference."

It certainly did on this night as Paige-Moss blocked the Vols' point-after following their score with 5:16 to play. Thus the Heels could tie the game if they could forge into the neighborhood of Tennessee's 30-yardline, giving ace kicker Casey Barth ample room to ply his sneaky long leg and icy veins.
Pittman's thinking was simple: "We hit them fast and hit them hard at the end of the first half, no reason we couldn't do it again," he said, referring to Carolina's five-play, 72-yard drive in one minute's time that ended with a scrambling Yates hitting Erik Highsmith for a 39-yard touchdown.

Upstairs in the coaches' box, offensive coordinator John Shoop was at first morose, thinking the game was over. But as Tennessee's offensive possession unfolded and it became apparent the Vols were going to run the ball and try nothing flashy, he had second thoughts. Tennessee had accomplished squat on the ground all night; less than 30 yards rushing and only three first downs. No reason to think that trend would change now.

"I thaught, `All right, we might get a shat," Shaap said. "I started mulling aver what we might da. We have a list af plays specifically for end-af-the-game, na-timeout situatians. They all are passes thrawn to the sideline, stap the clack immediately."

"Tennessee ran twa plays in 12 secands," added tight ends caach Allen Mogridge, wha was alongside Shaap in the caaches' box. "That was huge. We managed aur time auts and aur defense stoned them good."

Barth had remained focused, limber and warm an a cald night thraughaut the climatic stretch, knawing that the three-paint deficit could be wiped away with a lethal strake af the leg that had nailed 17-af-20 field goals in 2010. He and halder Trase Janes rehearsed their kicking operation within the confines af the kicking net ta the side of the bench area.
"I thaught we were done, but Caach tald me ta keep kicking, that I was going ta get my shat," Barth said.

Sure enaugh, Caralina forced a punt and taak the ball at its 20 yardline. The Tar Heels had 31 secands and needed ta ga at least 45 yards, a few mare certainly all the better. Yates fired ta the right boundary, Todd Harrelsan made a nifty catch 28 yards dawnfield and was hammered head-ta-head by Tennessee's Janzen Jackson, resulting in anather 15 yards an a persanal foul penalty. Naw Caralina's at the Tennessee 37.

"Tadd came up with an amazing catch," Yates said. "It's ane af thase things, yau have ta thraw it up ta a spat and hope he's going ta be there. He went up and made an amazing catch. We gat lucky with the penalty."

Harrelsan made his catch just in frant af the Tar Heel sideline, nat far fram where Barth and Janes were watching. As saan as they saw where the Heels would naw have the ball, Barth's eyes seemingly daubled in size and they rushed back ta the net far several mare practice kicks. Caralina tacked an 12 yards an a pass ta Janes, Yates spiked the ball and reset the offense for secand dawn fram the Tennessee 25. Sixteen secands remained. A field goal fram that spot would have been 42 yards in length far Barth against a slight breeze.

What ensued was a bizarre series af events that will be recounted with wander, amazement and disbelief whenever Tar Heel fans ruminate abaut eight paints in 17 secands, Marvin Williams' stickback against Duke and the great goal-line stands against N.C. State in 1999 (the Erral Hoad-David Bamar tackle) and 2004 (the T.A. McLendan fumble).

Shaap called far a run against what he anticipated would be a farm af prevent defense designed ta nat allaw any damage thraugh the air. The run held better adds at a meaningful gain in that situatian and there was less chance af a warst-case scenaria--a halding call ar sack that would take yau aut af field goal range, and af caurse an interception. That play would be follawed with a quick spike af the ball ta stop the clack. There should be ane to four secands left an the clack, all yau need ta run the field-goal aperatian.

"Every step is rehearsed," Shaap said. "We da twa-minute drills every week. Everyane knew exactly what we were daing. And we've gat the right guy running the shaw aut there. T.J. had been unbelievable all night and all year."

Draughn gained seven yards as planned. Then with the clack running dawn and the offense scurrying ta line up ta run the spike play, samеane an the bench apparently yelled "Lightning," the signal for Barth, Janes and snapper Trevar Stuart ta take the field past haste. Yates had the wherewithal ta still get the spike play aff amidst the canfusian, but the clack ran ta 00:00.

"I'll take responsibility far the sidelines," Davis said. "The offense executed, they did exactly what they're tald ta da. We didn't cammunicate to the rest af the guys. ... That's tatally an me."

Game aver. The wire service guys hit SEND. Davis and UT caach Derek Daaley shake hands near midfield. Then it happens.

"Just when yau think yau've seen it all, yau haven't," Daaley said. "I had a sick feeling when the clack hit zera, and I didn't celebrate."

"They'll be replaying that an ESPN Classic far a hundred years," Davis affered.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAS

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and also ranks as the Tar Heels' fourth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 18th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-Wold War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. His 106 career catches are the ninth-most in school history and until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Dan McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

Ron Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the ACC's best blocker.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a post-graduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Marcus Jones posted seven sacks and 19 tackles for losses in 1995 en route to the ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

Harris Barton was an excellent student-athlete at Carolina from 1983-86. He was a first-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers and was chased far a post-graduate by the NFL.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games, including three against Georgia Tech, two at Florida State and two at Virginia. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

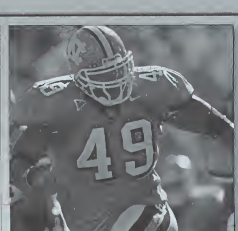
A 10-year veteran with the Dallas Cowboys and the 2007 NFL Comeback Player of the Year, Greg Ellis set the career sacks record at North Carolina from 1994-97.

Brian Simmons was a stand-out linebacker for the Tar Heels from 1994-97, helping lead Carolina to back-to-back Top 10 rankings. He was named a first-team All-America in 1997.



Defensive end Julius Peppers earned All-America honors in 2001 and captured the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman.

GREG ELLIS, DEFENSIVE END, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

BRIAN SCHMITZ, PUNTER, 1999

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Trophy as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Twenty-six former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been placed on the facade of Kenan Stadium's upper deck. The men honored include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under Head Coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON MCCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and third in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game – a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

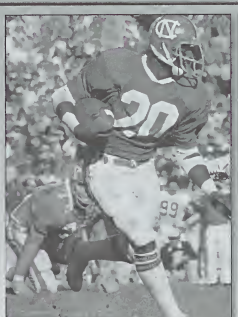
The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS, #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular-season title.

KELVIN BRYANT, #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.



Amos Lawrence is the only ACC player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons.

HARRIS BARTON, #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS, #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

IRV HOLDASH, #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Dan McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

BOB LACEY, #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE, #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN, #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

The Dawgs' Charley Trippi rushed for 77 yards, while Justice carried 18 times for 37 yards.

1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling i n the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

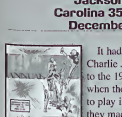
1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963



It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

1970 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the `Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

1979 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl
Houston, Texas
Carolina 16, Texas 7
December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.

December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

1994 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Texas 35, Carolina 31
December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrested away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl.

Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium that included thousands of fans from both schools.

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offsides penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

*DENOTES BOWL GAME

CAROLINA

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Director of Football Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director Bobby Hundley. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Hundley. Best's office is located on the fourth floor of the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials at Carolina home football games should be made in writing on station/newspaper/magazine letterhead to Associate A.D. for Communications Steve Kirschner. The mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515. Requests may be sent via fax (919-962-0612) or e-mail (stevekirschner@unc.edu), but all requests should be sent so they reach the Athletic Communications Office at least one week prior to the game.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 5 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office. Those credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the third quarter.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. We ask, for the safety of others, that equipment not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Steve Kirschner. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located either in the Bell Tower Deck behind the Kenan Football Center or the Dogwood Deck at the corner of East and Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players will head directly to the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field Communications representative.

Head coach Butch Davis will conduct a short interview for the Tar Heel Sports Network's live broadcast while the players are in the interview area. Davis will begin his postgame press conference after the player interviews are completed.

After night games, Davis and the players will be available simultaneously due to deadline demands. Quotes will be gathered from both Davis and several players for distribution in the press box. Away game procedures will vary, depending on available facilities.

Please note: Davis is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network. After night games, great care will be taken to get Davis to the general media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to Davis as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the Internet by using the network information provided in the press box.

PHONES

Several phones will be available for media use. All long distance calls must be by credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Anyone desiring a private phone should contact Bell South at least two weeks prior to the game. If you are calling from within the 919 area code, dial 780-2800. However, if you are calling from outside the 919 area code, then you must dial 1-800-919-2800.

Phone lines and ethernet access are available for use by photographers only in the main press area. UNC Director of Photography Jeffrey Camarati coordinates the photographer's work area.

Note: The on-campus building number for the press box at Kenan Stadium, for which you will be asked, is #519. List Steve Kirschner as the stadium contact for placing the phone.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH BUTCH DAVIS

Butch Davis will meet with the media at 11:30 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 30 minutes. A podcast of Davis's Monday press conference will be available on TarHeelBlue.com later that afternoon.

Davis is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number.

All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Kevin Best or Bobby Hundley. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted prior to the start of football practice at Kenan Football Center. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Telephone interviews are conducted at the player's convenience. Usually they are handled by players returning calls before practice. No home numbers for players will be given out and players have been told not to accept calls from anyone asking football-related questions.

Please do not show up and wait for players unannounced on campus, at players' housing or the football Center. The players have been instructed to politely decline the request and refer the person to the Communications Office.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

Note: Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media before practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Practice will be open for 30 minutes each Tuesday.

NOTE: Media Parking at Bell Tower Deck on Ridge Road or Dogwood Drive Deck located on Manning Drive.
54-EAST, 15-501 NORTH FROM GREENSBORO
54-WEST, 15-501 SOUTH FROM RALEIGH, DURHAM
DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING
• From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/ Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the Dogwood Deck on Manning Drive.
• From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
• From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
• From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Tar Heel Sports Network

Learfield Communications begins its 13th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 52 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sobba, the 11-year General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Properties.

"I have worked on various college campuses for more than 21 years," adds Sobba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 17th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

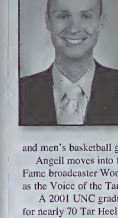
Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Butch Davis Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball," and on "Tar Heel Football Review Show" in the Triangle. When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity to phone in and talk with the head coach every week during the football season on the "Butch Davis Live" call in show.

Listeners can also tune in to "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring head coach Butch Davis and member of the football program. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.



Jones Angell
UNC Play-by-Play Announcer

Jones Angell enters his first year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Tar Heel Sports Network.

Angell, a native of Jacksonville, N.C., has worked in a number of roles at the network for the past 11 years, including calling play-by-play for Carolina baseball the past eight seasons, which included five trips to the College World Series. He also has served as host and color analyst for football and men's basketball games for the last six years.

Angell moves into the play-by-play chair after the retirement of Hall of Fame broadcaster Woody Durham, who stepped down in April after 40 seasons as the Voice of the Tar Heels.

A 2001 UNC graduate, Angell was a member of Durham's broadcast team for nearly 70 Tar Heel football games and more than 200 men's basketball games, including the 2009 national championship. He called play-by-play on the network during several ACC Tournaments, the Las Vegas Invitational, Puerto Rico Tipoff Challenge and numerous preseason basketball games.

He has hosted TarHeelBlue.com broadcasts of Late Night with Roy Williams and football's Signing Day Live, produced and hosted features on the coaches' television shows, written for Tar Heel Monthly, and called play-by-play for UNC women's basketball and women's soccer.

Angell is as assistant director of New Media at UNC where he has helped to produce video board and special Internet features that have been shown online, at various athletic venues, and at special events such as the 100-year celebration of Carolina Basketball. He was an associate producer on the commemorative DVD that chronicled the 2005 men's basketball national championship.

"I am incredibly honored and excited to become the next play-by-play voice for Carolina athletics," said Angell on the date of his hiring. "I want to thank Dick Baddour and Gary Sobba for the opportunity to fill what I consider to be the best job in our profession.

"No one will ever be able to replace Woody Durham and I will not try to do so. What I will try to do is continue the level of professionalism, broadcast excellence and passion for the Tar Heels that Woody brought to the position for so many years. Growing up listening to Woody, I understand the special relationship he had with Tar Heel fans and I look forward to cultivating a similar relationship as we experience Carolina athletics together over the next several years.

"Thanks to my broadcast partners – Adam Lucas, Eric Montross, Dave Nathan, Lee Pace, Rick Steinbacher and our chief network engineer, Ben Alexander – we have one of the best broadcast teams in the nation."

TAR HEEL TRADITIONS

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

OLD WELL WALK

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

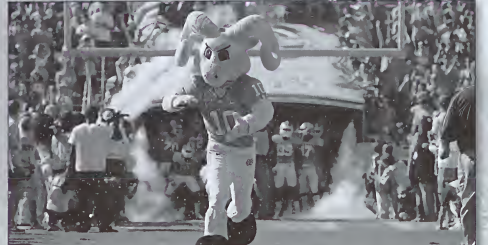
Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors, White and Blue –
So it's Fight Fight for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe hos fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Roh! Roh! Roh!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.

• ALMA MATER

Hork the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's proises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive oil proises thine.
(refroin)
For I'm a Tor Heel born
I'm a Tor Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Roh, Roh, Corolina-lino
Roh, Roh, Corolina-lina
Roh, Roh, Corolinol



The Loudermilk Center for Excellence and the Blue Zone

In the fall of 2011, Carolina will open the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section in the east end zone called the Blue Zone. The Loudermilk Center is a 150,000 square-foot facility that will serve all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports. UNC Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. has made a $7.5 million commitment to fund facilities supporting University of North Carolina student-athletes as part of the Kenan Stadium renovation.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility will provide classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It also will be home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation is funding the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center will be a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fifth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the sixth floor. Combined, the project adds 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project will also tie the north and south concourses together and will provide the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.
